The Chair laid before the Senate communication from Honorable E. E. Jones, which was read as follows:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON.

Federal Farm Loan Bureau

Honorable David J. Davis, Lieutenant Governor of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, Penna.

My dear Governor: Having been sworn in as a member of the Farm Loan Board at Washington, it becomes necessary for me to resign my seat in the Pennsylvania State Senate, due to the Constitution of our State.

I had hoped to finish this session before resigning and, in fact, have delayed taking up my duties on the Farm Loan Board for almost thirty days so as to be able to complete my work in this session of the Senate, but I feel that I must connect myself up with the work of the Board on June 1st and, after careful consideration, feel that I must send you this resignation.

It is one of my greatest regrets that I am thus compelled to retire from the Senate of Pennsylvania, which body I consider the finest legislative body in our land, and my relations with all my fellow Senators have been so exceedingly pleasant that it is with a sense of sadness that I have to retire. Very truly yours, E. E. Jones.

The PRESIDENT. I am sure that I voice the sentiment of every member of this body when I say that it is with keen and deep regret that we see Senator Jones retire from its membership, but we wish for him the same success in his new and larger field of work that he has attained as a member of this body, and while we will keenly feel his loss and departure, we believe that the Government untimately will be the gainer by the work that he will perform in his new field of usefulness.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR.

VETO OF SENATE BILL No. 434.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 29, 1923.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 434, entitled, "An Act to further amend section one of an act approved the twelfth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen entitled 'An act permitting counties of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to appropriate and expend moneys and to incur indebtedness and issue bonds and other obligations for the improvement and maintenance of State highways and State-aid highways or any public highway in any county of the Commonwealth and providing the method for applying for said moneys and for the approval thereof by the State Highway Department in certain cases.' "

In order to make desirable progress in improving State highways and State-aid highways, it was found necessary that counties participate in the expense thereof, and the Act of March 22, 1917 was passed enabling counties to issue bonds and appropriate money for the improvement of any road within the limit of the respective county, adding as a proviso that no improvement be made on State or State-aid highways until plans and sepecifications and contracts be submitted to and approved by the State highway Department.

This Act was amended by the Act of June 12, 1919, and the Act of March 10, 1921, which amendments provided that such money should not be expended on any roads without the submission of the plans and specifications therefor to the State Highway Department. Thus the restrictions placed around the expenditure of county money on highways and the benefits to be derived from State approval have been gradually extended.

The State Highway Department maintains a large highly trained and efficient force of experts on road construction and all that pertains thereto, which force is constantly employed in such work and which is available for the use of the counties without expense, thus avoiding the necessity of each county duplicating such a force.

The present Act provides a uniform system of road improvement, and it provides a joint check on the plans and specifications, bids, contracts and inspections of all improvements in which county money is used. All of those mutual advantages would be eliminated on all roads other than State and State-aid if this bill is approved.

The system under the present Acts does not deprive the counties of exercising a discretion and judgment in those matters, but provides a dual check whereby both State and county must be satisfied before work is accepted and money paid.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass, the objections of the Govenor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER HOUSE BILL No. 449.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 415 (House Bill No. 449) entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph one section five of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws seventy-three) entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain incorporations" as amended changing the effect of the by-laws of corporations was defeated.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I voted "no".

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I voted "no".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this is the bill that has to do with by-laws of corporations, the technical features of which I refer to my colleague, Senator Buckman. This bill was duly considered by a sub-committee of three and was reported favorably to the Judiicary General Committee by two of the three, was reported out favorably by the Committee on Judiciary General and we now ask for a reconsideration.

Mr. LONG. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, this is a bill that has reference to the by-laws of corporations, which attempts to set aside, practically, all of the by-laws of the corporations so far as they might affect third parties; that is, parties that were dealing with agents of the corporation. This bill was discussed at the time that it was defeated, it was thoroughly understood, I think, by most of the Senators and it received, I think, 18 or 19 votes. It was defeated and it ought to stay just where it is. It was considered at great length and was discussed on the floor here at considerable length.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not intend to discuss the merits of this bill at this time, they were discussed briefly when the bill was up recently and if it comes up again, as I think and hope it will, it can be discussed then, but I do ask for this bill the same consideration that we usually give to all bills, namely, that they have two chances for their white alley. Mr. President, surely not this session, and so far as I remember, not in a great many sessions past, have we refused to give any bill that had any merit at least two hearings. I call the Senate's attention to a bill which was passed over my objection a few weeks ago, namely, the Fisherman's License Bill. Had I seen fit to adopt the tactics or to request the action that is now requested by the Senator from Franklin, I would have moved reconsideration when that bill was first defeated, had it brought up and considered and defeated the second time and it would have been dead. I did not do that, and I ask the Senate not to do that with this bill, but to give it reconsideration, let it be placed on the postponed calendar and then be defeated on final passage when it is called up, if at all.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for seventeen Senators voted in the affirmative, and twenty-one in the negative, and the question was decided in the negative.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make reports from Committee at this time.

And said bill having been read at length the third tim, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have been urged make a few remarks on this bill. This bill comes from Reorganization Commission and imposes a tax upon State Workmen's Insurance Fund. This Insurance Fu does a business of over three million dollars a year and Roney came to our Commission and requested that we pla the usual tax of 8 mills on this fund, which will yield o $24,000 to the state This fund, as you know, now pa no tax and also enjoys a deferential of ten per cent, b this time we simply ask you to impose a tax of 8 mills a add $24,000 to the state treasury per annum.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelph Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. With pleasure.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would ask the Sena from Philadelphia, what becomes of that money no Where does that eight per cent go, does it not revert to state?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, there is no tax t present by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I understand there's no tax paid but is it not the state's money and does not money revert to the state treasury?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the state has nothi to do with this fund.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, who has?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this money has be created by the Legislature, by the State, and it is audi by the Insurance Commissioner.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, this is a peculiar pro- sition. Here is a state body having a fund, and the treasu and the state has nothing to do with the money. Certai the money in the treasury of the Workmen's Compensati Fund must belong to the State.

HOUSE MESSAGES.

RESOLUTION REQUIRING THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION TO INVESTIGATE TEXT BOOKS RELATIVE TO SIGNING OF DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE AND AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House, which was twice read, as follows, and referred to the Committee on Education:

In the House of Representatives, May 21, 1923.

Whereas There have been serious and repeated charges in the public press and other publications that a number of text books on history now used in the schools of the Commonwealth contain offensive material tending to destroy the faith of the pupils in the public schools that the American Revolution was waged for clean and exalted principals of human rights and the American historical characters were heroic clean upright and

Whereas A committee of twenty-one superintendents principals and teachers in New York City after six months of investigation found these texts unfit for use in the public schools and characterized one in the following language

"Mr. West presents only the views of the counsel for the Crown He is constantly finding defense for the course of action taken by the British Government The American side of the argument is entirely ignored No Weddeburn no Crown advocate could plead the British cause in a more bitterly partisan spirit than West has done"

Whereas Said committee further reported as follows

"The paragraphs complained of in the books indicate an attitude of mind toward the founders of the Republic which in our judgment is entirely reprehensible" and

Whereas These historical texts have been condemned in formal resolutions by the American Legion the decendants of the signers of the Declaration of Independence the Grand Army of the Republic the Knights of Columbus the Sons of the American Revolution the United Spanish War Veterans and the Veterans of Foreign Wars and

Whereas It is alleged these texts teach that many Patriots were drawn into the Continental Army by money bounties and promises of land that the Boston Tea Party was wholly a lawless destruction of property that if you called Washington an American he would have thought you were applying a nickname that the American Revolution was not an attempt of England to tyrannize over the Colonies that the wisdom of the break from England is a debatable question that the English Colonial system was not tyrannical that the War of one thousand eight hundred and twelve originated in blunder and was conducted discreditably and that it was a mistake that the first signer of the Declaration of Independence was a smuggler that the Continental Congress was made up of scoundrels and was the scene of petty bickerings and schemings among selfish unworthy short sighted narrow minded office seeking and office trading plotters and many other offensive provisions and

Whereas such teachings do not constitute honest history and are not designed to be an accurate presentation of the truth and must inevitably result in the deadening of pride and confidence in the characters and principals of our Nation's founders the poisoning of the springs of patriotism and the lessening of National spirit and moral in the next generation and

Whereas We should in all justice do honor to our forefathers credit to oureslves and justice to our children by purging the public schools of histories that are disloyal to American tradition spirit and prestige and

Whereas Laws have been passed in the States of Oregon Washington Wisconsin and New York prohibiting the use of such texts and measures of the same kind pending in Colorado Idaho Missouri West Virginia and Florida and in Indiana the legislature in letting a five-year contract of text books excluded all the accused histories therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Department of Public Instruction shall make an immediate investigation of all text books of history in the public schools of the Commonwealth and ascertain whether any of such texts ignore omit discount or in any manner belittle ridicule falsify distort question doubt or deny events leading up to the Declaration of Independence or connected with the American Revolution or the spirit determination or patriotism with which this Nation founded defended and preserved or the accomplishments motives and acts of American patriots or cast aspersions upon their lives

Resolved That the Department of Public Instruction shall after such investigation make a report of its findings and therein shall specifically list any text book of history which in its opinion teaches improper matter or in an improper way and shall send a copy of its report to each board of school directors of the Commonwealth with the request that further use of said text book be discontinued

Resolved That the Department of Public Instruction shall nake a report to the next Session of the General Assembly howing what was done in accordance with this resolution nd what if any legislation is needed to prevent the further use of improper text books in the public schools

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be certified to he Superintendent of Public Instruction by the Secretary f the Commonwealth

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO FINANCIAL NEEDS OF THE STATE.

Mr. SCHLEITER offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over for printing, under the rules:

Whereas, this House of Representatives is informed by His Excellency, the Governor, that to meet the financial needs of the Commonwealth during the next biennium over and above expected revenues, it wil be necessary to raise an additional $20,000,000, and

Whereas, this House of Representatives is informed by the Honorable, the Auditor General, that by lapsing certain appropriation liabilities incurred during prior years, the actual needs of the Commonwealth can be met during the next biennium with approximately $7,000,000, and

Whereas, this difference of opinion between the Executive and fiscal officers of the Commonwealth leaves members of this House in the dark as to the exact financial status, and

Whereas, His Excellency, tme Governor, has delayed filling the vacancy in the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction so that a study might be made by him of the financial phases of the educational policy of the State, involving as they do the expenditure of nearly one-fourth of the total budget, and

Whereas, there appears to be grave doubt as to the economic wisdom of many practices of the Deartment of Public Instruction including the maintenance of a large corps of highly paid experts, a "university faculty" in said Department at an annual charge on the taxpayers of nearly $500,000, and

Whereas, it is incumbent upon every member of this House to be supplied with the most accurate information and data possible before proceeding to levy any additional taxes on an already tax-burdened citizenship, therefore be it resolved

That, the Speaker appoint a committee of three members of this House to inquire, obtain and report to this House not later than Monday, June 11 the exact status with respect to expected revenue and expenditure so that this House may proceed with its consideration of its problem with at least undisputed figures.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. JOSEPH C. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1639, (Senate Bill No. 101), file folio 4499, on page 5 of today's calendar, entitled:

An Act for the registration and regulation of certain individuals and entities selling offering for sale or delivery soliciting subscriptions to or orders for or undertaking to dispose of inviting offers for or inquiries about or dealing in any manner in securities defined herein conferring powers and imposing duties on the Commissioner of Banking and otherwise providing for the administration of this act prescribing penalties and makin an appropriation be recommitted to the Committee on Banks and Banking.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. JOSEPH C. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I had no intention of recommitting this bill to the Committee on Banks and Banking without first extending to the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee the courtesy of asking him whether or not he would grant a public hearing on this bill. This I did before this House took a recess and he said he would have to get in touch with the persons interested in this bill. Tonight he informed me that those who are interested in the bill insist that they will not grant a public hearing. Now, in view of the fact this bill is the one commonly known as the blue sky bill, embodying all the facts of a bill that should have been committed to the Banks and Banking Committee, I think the bill could properly be given to that Committee, not for the purpose of putting the bill to sleep, but for the purpose of granting the public hearing which is desired by the Pittsburgh Stock Exchange, the Philadelphia Stock Exchange and all others who are interested in and opposed to this bill. I would appreciate it if the members would take this in the spirit in which it is offered, having no other purpose than to grant the public a hearing.

Mr. WHITEMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is known as the blue sky bill, designed to protect the public from the offering of spurious securities. I want to say in reply to what the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, has said, that this bill was drawn up by ex-Senator John Fisher a former Commissioner of Banking, and introduced by Senator Clark, and passed by the Senate with but one dissenting vote. An identical bill as this was introduced in this House and was left in the Committee on Banks and Banking early in the session, and that bill is still there. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been honestly framed, it has been given an honest hearing in the Senate. It was introduced on the 5th of February and has been given several months consideration. It was referred to the Committee on Appropriations and has come out after the honest deliberations of that body. It has been stated that the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia Stock Evchanges are opposed to it. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was being framed the Philadelphia Stock Exchange was invited to submit names of those whom it wished to sit with the Committee, and the Philadelphich Stock Exchange recommended to sit with that Committeee a Mr. DeVoe, a member of the Philadelphia Stock Exchange and the man so recommended sat with the commission that framed this bill. It seems to me, members of the House, that owing to the lateness of the session, and owing to the large and deliberate consideration given to this bill in the Senate, that the Speaker showed due wisdom in referring it to the Committee on Appropriations, and since the Committee on Appropriations has seen fit to report this bill out with a favorable recommendation, we should not jeopardize the safety of the people that are being filched out of their savings by the spurious sellers of spurious certificates, and at this late time in the session I sincerely trust that on behalf of the people at large, and not for the Philadelphia Stock Exchange that you will vote this motion down and allow this bill to come out before the House where it can be passed upon according to its merit.

Mr. JOSEPH C. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Whiteman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHITEMAN. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JOSEPH C. MARCUS. Has the gentleman from Westmoreland read this bill?

Mr. WHITEMAN. I have.

Mr. JOSEPH C. MARCUS. Are you familiar with the provisions of this bill?

Mr. WHITEMAN. I think I am reasonably familiar with them.

Mr. JOSEPH C. MARCUS. Do you know that this bill provides, in addition to a tax of $150.00, or an additional tax of $50.00 for each broker and $30.00 for each assistant?

Mr. WHITEMAN. I am perfectly familiar with that fact, yet I still think that it comes with bad grace from the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges to say that they do not want to be subject to regulation, even though it does mean protection to the common people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. JOSEPH C. MARCUS. You know then that in addition to paying a state and county tax, and having their business regulated by the Banking Department, that their business can be suspended without a hearing?

Mr. WHITEMAN I am familiar with all the features of the bill but I am not especially concerned with that phase mentioned by the gentleman from Allegheny. I am only interested in trying to protect the people of Pennsylvania from spurious securities whether they are offered by some member of the Stock Exchange or by some wild cat stock promoter who comes into the state.

Mr. JOSEPH C. MARCUS. In what way does this bill protect the people of the state?

Mr. WHITEMAN. It requires registration of those who deal in securities; it requires submission of all securities which are placed on the market to the Banking Commissioner, and it gives the Banking Commissioner ample time to decide and to investigate the quality of those securities, and in case they are spurious, in case they are dangerous, to warn the people against them.

Mr. STONER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am heartily in favor of a blue sky law for the state of Pennsylvania, but it is a serious question whether this is a proper bill, and I hope the motion of Mr. Marcus will prevail. We have in the city of Pittsburgh a blue sky department, operating as well as it can by virtue of an ordinance of City Council. This bill will, in many respects, I get it from the superintendent of that Department, interfere with their endeavors to do away with the spurious stock salesmen, that the whole state is infested with. There are two provisions of the bill which there is no use taking up now, but which are serious and deserve the consideration of this House. I would like, therefore, even at the risk of the bill going to sleep, that it be recommitted to a committee that the bill might be amended.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to confirm what was said by Mr. Marcus in regard to his conference with me concerning this bill. This bill was committed to the Committee on Appropriations last week. A meeting of the Committee was held the following morning. The bill was considered, and without any objections reported to this House with a very favorable recommendation with amendments. The bill had been introduced into the Senate on February 5, if I am not mistaken; had been considered by the Senate; two or three hearings had been held, and from the recommendations that the Committee on Appropriations had received from the leading banks of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, we felt fully satisfied that this bill should be brought before the House as amended. I think the Committee on Appropriations has fully considered the bill, as much as any other Committee will consider it. I don't believe there is any need for recommitting this bill for any hearing, because I think sufficient hearings have been had, and if the bill is not what it should be, I think we should defeat it on final passage, if it is let us vote on the bill and let it go through. I don't think there is any need to recommit this bill at this time.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the noes appeared to have it,

Whereupon a division was called for, and 69 members having voted in the affirmative and 88 in the negative, the question was determined in the negative, and the motion was not agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent at this time to call up House Bill No. 1550 (Senate Bill No. 1147) at the top of page 27 of to-day's calendar. My purpose in calling this bill out of order is for the purpose of offering amendments which it is believed will relieve the very grave condition in the Eastern Penitentiary. Those conditions were made quite apparent, as you may have noticed in the public press, and were particularly pointed out through the splendid work of our own Judge Monahan, and through the efforts of the Grant Jury under that very estimable woman Mrs. J. Willis Martin. I am very sure that the amendments to be offered to-night will meet with the approval of all people concerned and will be for the benefit of prison welfare in general. I therefore, trust that you men and women of the House will grant my request for unanimous consent to call this bill up out of order.

The SPEAKER. Are there objections. The Chair hears none and unanimous consent is granted.

Agreeably to order,

BILL ON THIRD READING.

(SPECIAL ORDER)

THE SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order of the day at this time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1179, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to and regulating the use and operation of motor vehicles and vehicles propelled by or trailing after motor vehicles requiring the registration of the same and the licensing of all operators thereof providing the fees therefor and the disposition of such fees prohibiting the unauthorized use of and tampering with motor vehicles limiting and defining the powers of cities boroughs incorporated towns townships and counties as to the regulation of the use and equipment of motor vehicles and the taxing registration or licensing thereof imposing certain duties on the State Highway Commissioner and on proprietors of public garages providing procedure and penalties for violations thereof and the disposition of fines collected and regulating the service of process and proceedings in actions for damages arising from the use of any motor vehicle" as amended by further regulating the use of registration plates prescribing fees for omnibuses and changing other existing fees changing the date for the licensing year limiting the weights of certain trailers providing for the examination of operators authorizing the State Highway Commissioner to publish and sell lists of registrations authorizing municipalities to erect certain ordinances making an appropriation for refunding moneys and providing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of this bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RHODES. Will the gentleman from Tioga advise the House as to the approximate amount of income that this bill will produce.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. The net amount, Mr. Speaker, is $1,600,000, annually.

Mr. RHODES. Will the gentleman from Tioga state whether or not the owner of a motor vehicle who takes out his license and pays a regular license fee does not also have to take out a license and pay two dollars in addition thereto for the purpose of operating the car.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. He does, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill contains a great many praiseworthy features, but it seems to me there is one serious objection in it. If a man or woman purchases a car, he takes out the necessary license, pays the necessary fee, but they are not permitted to stop there; they must in addition thereto, after becoming the owner, pay a license of two dollars additional for the purpose of operating the car which they have already paid a license for. In addition to that, it means that the motorists of this State are beginning to be considerably burdened with these new tax measures. For example, the Metcalf Bill which requires registration of all motor vehicles will necessarily mean two dollars for every owner of a car. In addition to that, they will be obliged to pay the regular license fee, and now, in addition, they will be obliged to pay two dollars in order to operate the car which they have already paid these two taxes upon. Under these circumstances, it seems to me to be a hardship upon the owner of small cars. For example, Fords; they will be obliged to pay two dollars to have their Ford registered, ten dollars for the license and then two dollars more in order to operate it, which means a forty per cent increase in the license fees for that particular individual to take out a license to operate a Ford automobile. Under these circumstances, I feel that the bill is very objectionable, although it has in it some very good propositions. It has incorporated within it a number of things and a number of features which are very praiseworthy, but it seems to me this increased taxation, this increased burden upon the owners of automobiles is unwarranted at this time.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, this bill is prepared by the Highway Department. It is the judgment of the Highway Commissioner that the suggested increase is needed by the department for the maintenance of the present State Highways. As said by the gentleman from Monroe, the bill has many commendable features, a few of which I wish to enumerate.

First, the two dollar license fee permits the owner of a car to drive any car. He is not limited to his own. It does away with the present operator's license fee, so that if this bill becomes a law, there will be but one class of licenses, and that will be those paying the two dollar fee. It eliminates the unnecessary sworn statement of a license application. It permits the owner to operate his motor vehicle for ten days on his old license plate, pending the transfer of registration and not being subject to fine of from one hundred dollars to five hundred dollars. It gives the manufacturer and dealer unlimited use of registration plates and increases the fees from ten dollars per set to twenty-five dollars for each of the first two sets and five dollars for all additional sets, and provides that the dealer may apply for one set or more instead of two sets or more as at present provided. It provides for full reciprocity of all non-resident owned motor vehicles regardless of classification. It provides new fees for registration of motor omnibuses based on seating capacity. It provides for a 20% increase on existing fees for solid tire truck registrations. It is the judgment of the officers of the Highway Department who from time to time make observations of the traffic on improved State highways that overloaded trucks do greater damage to the highways than is done by any other vehicle passing over them, and for this reason this increase is suggested. It provides for the examination of all new operators of motor vehicles after February 28, 1924. All licensees for 1923 will have their licenses automatically extended to February 28, 1924. After this date, all licenses will be dated March 1st from year to year. It provides further, that these motor fees may be used for establishing traffic policemen, so much needed on the highways with the congested traffic that we have to contend with from day to day, and which is constantly increasing. It gives the department broader powers in the suspension of operators' licenses, providing daily lists of registration to police departments and disposition of copy of motor vehicle registrations for commercial uses. It provides for the elimination of unnecessary sounding of horns, bells and signal devices. It increases the minimum fine of $100 to $200 and imprisonment of not more than one year to not more than three years for the conviction of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. It provides that the department may reduce gross weight of vehicles and the loads of motor vehicles at certain seasons of the year for the protection of the highways. It provides that motor vehicles shall not pass at railroad crossings, a safety measure. It provides that a penalty in connection with refusal of mayor, burgess, alderman, magistrate, justice of the peace for refusing to recognize the right of defendant to waive summary hearing and take the case to court.

This bill was drawn after several conferences with motor vehicle interests, and with the exception of features increasing fees on solid rubber tire commercial vehicles and providing for an operator's license, was acceptable to the greater number of these interests.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I find in this bill, on page 36, an item empowering the Highway Commissioner to appoint as many employees as he may see fit for the proper protection of highways. Now what I would like to know is just exactly what that means. Does that mean that the Governor can authorize the Commissioner of Highways to appoint as many employees, as he calls them, but which, in point of fact, are policemen, to stop automobiles to search them and then authorize the Auditor General to draw warrants for their pay? If that is the scheme, then it is simply an atttempt on the part of the Governor to get back the $250,000 which this House denied him, in his petition. I offer the following amendment, and ask that action be taken upon it immediately.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman from Northampton that the House will first have to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed third reading.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1179, was passed on third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. MACK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agreed to the motion?

Mr. HOWARD SMITH. Mr. Speaker, in all respect to this motion, I think it is no more than right that the House should reconsider this vote on third reading in order to see what the amendments are. They may be very good amendments; therefore I hope that the amendments be read for the information of the House. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the amendments be read.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman that their is nothing in order but the motion to reconsider.

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, in order that no one may be unduly alarmed by the argument of the gentleman from Northampton, I beg to direct your attention to the fact that the paragraph to which he referred on page 36 limits the appointment of employees carrying out the work of the State Highway Department as described in the Act of Assembly of May 31, 1911, known as the State Highway Act and the amendments and supplements thereto. The burden, therefore, of the argument of the gentleman from Northampton as to the use to which these employees might be put is necessarily limited by the terms of the act to the work of the Highway Department alone as defined in the act of 1911 and the supplements thereto. It seems to me, Mr. Speaker, that that word of explanation might be said, based upon the language of the act itself.

Mr. DAVID FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Edmonds?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Edmonds, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDMONDS. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DAVID FOWLER. How many men are required under the act of 1911? Could you give me that information?

Mr. EDMONDS. I can't answer that, but I would ask the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, who is an expert; he can answer you.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. I can't answer you. I am unable to give the gentleman from Lackawanna the information he desires as to the number of men provided for under the Act of 1911.

Mr. EDMONDS. May I say, Mr. Speaker, that in the last House I raised the same question with reference to the Highway bill, that the language of the bill was to the effect that the Commissioner of Highways was authorized to employ such employees as seemed advisable in his judgment and I found upon some examination that that language has gone back for the past three or four session of the Legislature and has never seemed to cause any question. So I was informed two years ago, and I profited by the information that was given me. It seems to have worked.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nay were taken.

Mr. LITTLE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a vertificatipn of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1095.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 25, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1095, entitled, "An Act relating to debts of municipalities."

The Constitution of Pennsylvania, in Section 8 of Article IX, in providing for the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities, uses the words "debt" and "indebtedness" as synonymous. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in the case of Keller vs. Scranton, 200 Pa. 130, has defined this use of the words to be in their broad and commonly accepted sense. It clearly follows that it is the province of the Judiciary at all times to construe what is a debt or indebtedness under the Constitution rather than for the Legislature.

Section 15 of Article IX of the Constitution, wherein provision is made as to what obligations are to be considered as a debt of a municipality, was added by way of amendment. This Bill is clearly unconstitutional because the object sought by it can be obtained only by Constitutional amendment.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. GOLDER,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 31, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 227, entitled "An Act to further amend the fifth section of an act, entitled 'An act relating to the organization and jurisdiction of orphans' courts and to establish a separate orphans' court in and for counties having more than one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and to provide for the election of judges thereof', approved May nineteenth, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and six), as amended, by fixing and determining the salaries of the assistant clerks of said court in counties of the first, second, third and fourth classes."

This Bill amends the Act of May 25, 1921, which amends the Orphans' Court Act of 1874 so far as it relates to counties of the first, second, third and fourth classes.

The only change made by this Bill in the above Act of 1921 is that, in counties of the third class, the salary of the third assistant clerk of the Orphans' Court is increased from $1,800 to $2,100 per year and that the salary of all other assistant clerks of said Court in said counties is increased from $1,500 to $1,800 per year.

Act No. 205, approved the twenty-third day of May, 1923, is an amendment of the same Act, which this Bill amends. It provides for the increase of salaries of certai clerks of the Orphans' Court including all those include in this Bill, to an amount not more than twenty per cer greater than that mentioned in the Act of May 25, 192

For the reason that the purpose of this Bill is effectuate by the provisions of Act No. 205, this Bill is unecessary ar it is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being;

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His E cellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. GIBBON,

That the question, together with the further consideratic of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presente a communication in writing from His Excellency the Gove nor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 897.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 1, 1923,

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of th Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bi No. 897, entitled, "An Act to amend sections nine and te of an act approved the twenty-second day of June, one thou sand eight hundred and ninety-one (Pamphlet Laws thre hundred and seventy-nine) entitled 'An act to provide fc the selection of a site and the erection of a State asylu for the chronic insane, to be called the State asylum for th chronic insane of Pennsylvania, and making an appropria tion therefor', changing the name and purpose of said hosp tal and repealing sections eleven and fifteen of said act".

If there were oppoortunity for the recall of this Bill i formal difficulties [illegible]ight be corrected, but these forma errors are so considerable that, especially because the tit of the Bill is incorrect, it would be wrong to allow it t become a law.

The title provides for amending "Section nine and ten The Bill as it comes to the Governor shows that an effort t amend section 10 was stricken out, and that an effort wa made to amend Section 15 instead. Section 10, howeve remains in the title, while Section 15 is not mentioned.

But that is not all. After an explicit statement that se tion 15 is to be amended the amended Section is given a Section 16.

There are other errors but the above are fatal.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His E cellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. SARIG,

That the question, together with the further consideratio of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presente a communication in writing from His Excellency the Go ernor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1080.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1923.

To the Honorable, the Members of the House of Representa tives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without approval, Hous Bill No. 1080, entitled "An act to make reinstatements in th civil service of persons honorably released from the activ military or naval service of the United States after se vice in any of the wars in which the United States has been engaged."

The Bill would give to veterans honorably dischargegd from the active military or naval service of the United States after service in any past war, the right of reinstatement in the civil service of the Commonwealth, of cities of the first class, and of all counties, cities and towns, which right would be absolute upon a mere certificate of physical fitness from the "Civil Service Commission." A veteran reinstated in a grade lower from that from which he was separated, would have an absolute right to promotion as vacancies occurred until he reached his former status.

The proponents of the Bill apparently intended to restrict the special privileges above enumerated to veterans who declare or prove one years residence in the Commonwealth or in the county, city or town in question, but the omission of significant words between lines 18 and 19 on page 2 nullifies this supposed intent.

Veterans whose record is rated as "good" could not be suspended, discharged or demoted unless funds were exhausted, in which case they would be the last to be affected and the first to be reinstated when funds were replenished. The administrative officer, charged with a responsibility in the performance of his public duties, would have no choice in the matter unless the veteran in question shall have a fair and impartial trial (and it would seem shall have been convicted) in accordance with the provisions of existing laws.

If enacted the Bill would, in my opinion, be fatal to efficiency in the civil service of the Commonwealth, of cities of the first class, and of all counties, cities and towns. Moreover the constitutionality of the proposed grant of special privileges is at least doubtful.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. JOSEPH MARCUS,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 831.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 1, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 831, entitled, "An Act providing punishment for the selling and furnishing for beverage purposes of intoxicating liquors or liquids represented as intoxicating liquors contrary to law thereby causing the death of persons drinking the same".

In certain cases this bill would operate to reduce the sentence of one who furnishes intoxicating liquor to another resulting in his death.

It provides that he shall be guilty of involuntary manslaughter who unlawfully and wilfully sells or furnishes intoxicating liquors or any liquid representing the same to be intoxicating liquor to another who, as a consequence of drinking same shall die. Involuntary manslaughter is defined by Blackstone as a killing in the doing of an act unlawful in itself or a lawful act in an unlawful or careless way.

If there is sufficient evidence to prove the sale or furnishing of intoxicating and that such action was unlawful and that as a result thereof death ensued, the defendant would be guilty of involuntary manslaughter without this Bill, and so it is unnecessary legislation.

The difficulty of convicting a man of involuntary manslaughter under such circumstances is not with the law but with the obtaining of evidence. This Bill in no way remedies that defect.

There may be situations in which the furnishing of intoxicating liquor which causes death is accompanied by circumstances which would prove malice and raise the degree of the offense to a higher grade of homicide, because malice includes any improper and sinster motive; it includes acts wantonly or wilfully done which any man of reason and knowledge and ability must know to be contrary to his duty. This Bill could be relied upon under such a state of facts to reduce the grade of the homicide to involuntary manslaughter, and correspondingly lighten the penalty.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise with the utmost reluctance at this time to make a motion. This bill originally introduced by me was far different for the one vetoed by the Governor. I wish to say just a word for fear that it may be recorded that I was opposed to, or rather that I was in cahoots with the bootleggers and those who furnished poisoned hootch. In today's Record, editorially, it speaks of this act, and also in the Evening Bulletin, editorially today. I only speak of this because I do not wish our friends, the gentlemen of the press, who represent the papers in this State in this House so well and so ably, fearlessly and honestly, to misquote or misjudge my motives. This bill did not meet with the approval of those who voted for the so-called Enforcement Act, and with them, and with the Governor I have no quarrel. I simply want to put myself on record that I was not in cahoots with the so-called gentlemen that are termed bootleggers. In the bill as originally presented in this House the charge was to be murder.

I, therefore, move that the bill together with the veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 1, page 1, line 4 by striking out the words "authority of the same That"

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 8 by inserting after the word "include" the words "building and loan association nor."

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, by inserting at the end thereof after line 16 the following: The term "net income" as used in this act shall mean the net income for the calendar or fiscal year as required to be returned to the Federal Government under the Federal Revenue Act of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, together with all interest and dividends, less interest received upon bonds, notes and certificates of indebtedness of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania, and less all taxes paid to the United States.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, may I say just a word, at the request of the sponsor, Mr. Armstrong, with reference to the amendments which he has offered to House Bill No. 1648. They are directed to two ends. In the first place, it was originally intended when the bill was introduced that it should not apply to the net profits of building and loan associations. The question rose as to whether or not the language was sufficiently explicit. By the amendment that has just been offered building and loan associations are specifically exempted from the provisions of the act. That is the first end. In the second place, under the original bill the net profits was based upon the capital stock return as filed with the Auditor General, and the question arose as to whether it was more convenient to base it upon the federal corporations income return. It was found that in New York and the other states that use this method of taxation they base their rate upon the return of the net income to the federal government. These amendments have been offered with the approval of the Auditor General and change the basis of calculation from our own state report to the federal return on corporate income. The amendments are slightly complicated but with this explanation I think the object of them will be clear to the members of the House.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

Mr. PRICE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Section 1, page 2, line 16, after the word "seventy-nine", insert the following: "nor any corporation joint stock association limited partnership or company now required to pay a tax upon its gross receipts under the provisions of section one of the act approved the second day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and eighty-four) entitled 'An act to provide revenue by imposing a mercantile license tax on vendors of or dealers in goods wares and merchandise and providing for the collection of said tax.'"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I was to express the very strong hope that the amendment that has been offered by the gentleman from Allegheny will not prevail. As every member of this House knows the moment a general taxation measure is introduced some group will say, "Why not exempt us?" and another group will say, "Why not exempt us?" Now, there have been several groups that have suggested their particular claims, and they all agreed to withdraw their claims at this stage from consideration before the House except this particular one, and my feeling is that it would be making a great mistake for us to let down the bars and put in an exemption at this time which will take one particular group of corporations out from under the operation of the act and let them go free. The moment you start doing that another group will start to do the same thing and then you have got your tax measure shot full of holes.

For that reason I move that the amendment of the gentleman from Allegheny be laid on the table.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. PRICE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in reply to the remarks of Mr. Edmonds, I would like to point out the fact that as the bill was originally introduced it did contain some exceptions. It contained exceptions in the case of these corporations which paid a gross receipts tax. Now, this amendment is designed to exempt from the net profits tax those corporations which pay a mercantile license tax, which is nothing more than a gross receipts tax. It is based on the volume of business of such corporations and is nothing but a gross receipts tax. It seems to me that if the original bill contained an exemption of those corporations paying a gross receipts tax this exemption that I now offer should also have been in the bill, and it was more of an oversight than anything else that it was overlooked. Now, corporations in the retail business who pay a mercantile license tax pay more forms of tax and pay more tax, it seems to me, than almost any other kind of business than we can think of. In the first place they pay the capital stock tax, they pay the mercantile license tax, they are heavy users of gasoline, and they pay a very heavy gasoline tax, and if the proposed gasoline tax bill goes through, that tax will be increased. Now, we propose to come along and tax them under this net profits tax. It seems to me that if there is any line of business which should be exempt it is these retail corporations, retailers who pay a mercantile license tax. I hope that the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Edmonds, to lay this amendment upon the table will not prevail.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Price and Mr. Joseph C. Marcus and were as follows:

Mr. HORNE. Mr. Speaker, I did not think it would be necessary for me to defend the Committee on Education. We have tried to act in good faith on all the bills placed in that committee. This bill to my mind had more than a fair consideration. It had a public hearing and on four occasions was acted on by that committee. More consideration was given to it than to any other bill we have had in this session. I believe that the members of that committee were acting for the best interest of the schools of Pennsylvania. Feeling that that is true, I cannot see any reason why those who have been lobbying for this bill should claim to have the support of the Department of Education and others in the fostering of this bill. This bill has not been amended, the amendments were not accepted in committee. Some of us believe in tenure, but the sentiment of that committee taken a four different times was strongly against tenure of this nature. I see no reason why at the end of a session we should be called upon to make an educational fight. Certainly this State has had the question discussed widely. As to whether or not the Department of Education is for or against the bill, after talking with Doctor Finegan, he took the position as not favoring the bill as presented. Therefore, I can see no reason why we should now go along with the teachers and lobbyists and try to bring the bill on this floor. I took the matter up with the executive department, and was given to understand that no word in its support had come from there and I was told that if any action was taken from that office, it would be taken with the Committee on Education. In spite of the fact that this letter, distributed over this House, says that 48,000 teachers are in favor of this tenure in office, I find that the teachers in a very large number are opposed to tenure in office. I want decidedly to urge this House not to act favorably on this motion. To do so would be to discredit the educational Committee and would be an act entirely against the directors of the State, and I have never felt yet that the teachers ought to foist legislation. You will find the directors are almost unanimously opposed to tenure for teachers. I have taken for myself the sentiment expressed to me by letters and telegrams from all over the State, I have acted with the committee and in good faith, but when I found outsiders lobbying through the House who had no interest in the schools, no general interest in education, trying to bring out this bill more from a partisan standpoint than otherwise, then I objected and I want to bear out that attitude by opposing the placing of this bill on the calendar. I do so without any hesitation at all. In my own district from those in authority in the schools, as well as a great number of the teachers, I find that they are decidedly opposed to tenure in office for the reason that it would be injurious to the teacher should she attempt to obtain a position in another district after having been discharged. This committee, in its last vote, voted eighteen to five against the bill. I urge you to sustain the action of the committee on education.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, while I do not doubt that some of the teachers in the district of the gentleman who has just spoken against the motion are opposed to the teachers' tenure, yet in my district, the first district of Luzerne County, I find that over ninety-five percent of the teachers are in favor of the Teachers' Tenure Bill, and I would ask every fair-minded member of this House to vote for the Teachers' Tenure Bill. Simply because Doctor Finegan does not approve of it, that doesn't mean anything, I don't approve of him.

Mr. WONER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to corroborate what Mr. Horne has said that the Educational Committee considered this bill very carefully and continuously and certainly with all fairness. Now, I think we have tied the hands of our directors in this State, in the conduct of their schools, entirely tight enough. It is time we took off some of the shackle of the directors and give them more authority. This bill would take more authority out of the hands of the directors, and I hope that the House will not agree to bring this bill before the House but will sustain the Committee on Education.

Miss BENTLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say in reply to the remarks of the gentleman from Cambria that Doctor Finegan read this bill and told me he was in favor of it and would work for it.

Mr. HORNE. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to contradict the lady from Crawford, for whom I have the highest regard. I fear that the lady has confused an amendment which was offered to the bill rather than the bill itself. It is my impression that this bill was not drafted by Doctor Finegan or the Department of Education, but was drafted by those who are lobbying for the bill and who are not a part of the Department of Education. I think you will find my statement is correct.

Mr. McCURDY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise in opposition to placing this bill on the calendar notwithstanding its negative recommendation. I consider that it is a measure directed in the wrong direction We are taking away from the school directors all their prerogatives in office except that of issuing checks to pay the teachers. I feel that schools of any school district are within the jurisdiction of the school directors, who are chosen by the people and are supposed to represent the people, and the school teachers are supposed to follow the directions of the school directors, and are not the dictators as to who shall be the succeeding teachers. If you want to make your schools progressive you must look about for the best teachers available and the most available are those who are interested in their occupation and who prepare themselves for that very valuable vocation. Therefore, I think the school directors are the suitable people to say who the school teachers shall be, not the school teachers to say so themselves, and I am opposed to the placing of this bill on the calendar.

Mr. JOHN G. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that this is too important a matter and too far-reaching in its effect to ask the Commonwealth to let it pass unnoticed. First, I wish to call the attention of the members to the bill we are asked to vote on, that it is not the bill represented to have been drafted by Doctor Finegan. The information we had in the committee was that the bill as amended, that the amendments submitted were drafted by Doctor Finegan. This bill was reported out with a negative recommendatioon in its original form. You are now called upon to vote as to whether or not you will put this bill on the calendar in its original form, that is, without the amendments. Now, the bill as it appears at the present time, I wish to call your attention to two short sections of it. In paragraph 4, the last clause provided that "any teacher who, at the date of the approval of this act has been employed by a board for three or more years shall be reemployed for an indefinite term in that district"—whatever that means, and you all know what tenure for an indefinite period means.

Paragraph 6 provides that "any teacher employed for an indefinite term may be dismissed only by a two-thirds vote of the board in the manner hereinafter provided for any of the following reasons: First, incapacity to discharge his or her duties by reason of physical or mental disability. Second, inefficiency. Third, persistent neglect of duty. Fourth, immoral conduct. Fifth, unprofessional conduct. Sixth, persistent violation of the school laws of the Commonwealth or of the rules and regulations of the board and superintendent". In order to discharge them specific charges must be brought. That puts the teacher in the position of being brought before the board to answer specific charges, which to my mind is a very undesirable thing from the standpoint of a teacher. In my own district I am very well satisfied that the teachers do not want this form of tenure. It has been said we have a form of tenure in some parts of Pennsylvania, I believe in the city of Philadelphia. I was informed by a speaker from Philadelphia who attended the public hearing and spoke on this bill that there ought to be some amendments offered before it was adopted. Evidently with these suggestions it is not the same form as they have in Philadelphia which is given as a successful form of tenure. A few years ago we passed laws here putting certain restrictions upon the Board of School Directors in various school districts. We told them in substance how many months they would be required to employ their teachers. Then we passed an act telling them that they must not only employ them for a stipulated number of months in the year, but also in addition to that that they must pay them a stipulated salary. Now, then, we are asked to go further than that and say, not only must they be employed a stipulated time and paid a stipulated salary but that they must keep them indefinitely after they have served three years unless you can make specific charges make specific charges against a teacher in order to get her out of a district, it is going to have a bad effect and make it harder for that teacher when she tries to get a position in another district. You may have a teacher of the second or third grade and the board was compelled through the scarcity of teachers to take her on the list, if she happened to stay on for three years, under this act, if you had an opportunity of replacing her with a better teacher you could not do so unless you brought specific charges against er and forced her out under these conditions. I am for ducation, but I feel this is a mistake; I feel it is a bad hing to advocate, an exceedingly bad piece of legislation o pass at this time. Personally, I can see no merit in this ill and can see no good results that would come from it if ve had it on our books. If we had a proper form of reognition, a proper form of tenure not in the form of this ill, it might serve its purpose. It is a delicate thing to ppose a measure under certain conditions, and the cirumstances surrounding this bill throughout this session re one of those conditions, but this is no important a matter hat I do not feel that any member who has any informaion should stand idly by and to allow it to go on without voicing his opposition.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the letter which came to all of us this evening closes with the sentence that, "We ask you to vote to put the bill on the calendar in order that the amendments may be printed and the members of the House may have opportunity to consider them." This letter is signed by Jane Allen, President of the Pennsylvania State Teacher's League, one in whom, I have no doubt, members of this House realize that she, as the main representative of the Teacher's League, will do as stated in this letter. There is no doubt in my mind but that the representatives back of this move will offer the amendments which the members of this House may study before they vote finally upon this bill. I trust that the motion which has been made by the lady from Crawford will prevail.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker declared the "nays" appeared to have it. Whereupon a division was called for, and 64 members having voted in the affirmative and 63 in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

Mr. MacDADE, from the Committee on Judiciary General, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1219, entitled:

An Act regulating the selection of jurors for service in the several courts, civil and criminal, of the counties of the second class; creating a Board of Judges from the court of common pleas of said counties for this purpose; and prescribing the powers and duties of such Board; imposing the entire cost and expense of maintaining and operating such Board upon said counties; requiring the county commissioners of said county to provide suitable office quarters, equipment and supplies for said Board, authorizing the employment of the necessary clerks, assistants, deputies and other employees; abolishing the existing office of jury commissioners in said counties; and providing that the present jury commissioners shall become clerks of said Board until the expiration of their term of office; requiring other county officers and boards to furnish information to said board; and prescribing punishments for violation of the provisions hereof.

Mr. CULBERTSON, from the Committee on Judiciary General, re-reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1044, (House Bill No. 1253), entitled:

An Act permitting service in divorce actions to be made by registered letter upon respondents residing outside of the Commonwealth.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. DAIX read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1487, entitled:

An Act authorizing the board of inspectors of the Eastern Penitentiary to erect, construct and equip, with the consent of the authorities of Philadelphia, buildings, outhouses, and a stockade on the grounds of the House of Correction for the detention of convicts transferred from the several penitentiaries, jails and prisons; and re-appropriating moneys therefor heretofore appropriated to the Commission to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of an institution for inebrates.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. SCHANTZ read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1488, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Treasurer for the purpose of paying salaries of State officers and employes in the interim between the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and such time as the funds provided by the General Appropriation Bill become available.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from Committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ARON, from the Committee on Municipal Affairs re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1157, entitled:

An Act to amend article nineteen section thirteen paragraphs five and six and section eighteen of an act approved the twenty-fifth day of June, 1919, (P. L. 581) entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth".

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from Committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SCHANTZ, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1488, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Treasurer for the purpose of paying salaries of State officers and employes in the intermin between the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and such time as the funds provided by the General Appropriation Bill become available.

TIME OF FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. HOMSHER offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, June 5, 1923.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the General Assembly of the session of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three adjourn sine die Thursday, June fourteenth, at twelve o'clock noon.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Vare, will state his question of parlimentary inquiry.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, is not this the situation: The Senate having already fixed the date of the fourteenth of June, for final adjournment, and the House having fixed the date of the thirty-first of May, is this not already a subject of conference on the part of the two bodies?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Vare, that the Senate has not fixed a date for final adjournment.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I really think that this resolution is premature. I would not favor a resolution to adjourn until we knew that our work would be finished. We cannot tell now whether this legislature will have finished the work that it should do on the fourteenth of June. For my part, the work should be finished if we have to stay here all summer.

Mr. LONG. Mr. President, It seems to me that we cannot be certain at all that we will be ready to adjourn at that time. A resolution of that kind can be passed in a very short time and I move that this resolution be referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I hope that this motion will not prevail. The fact of the matter is that this Senate passed a resolution some two months ago providing for final adjournment on May 24th. That resolution went to the House and was held by the House for a considerable length of time and finally came back to this Senate with an amendment providing for adjournment on May 31st. We have delayed two weeks beyond May 31st and I am convinced that until a date of final adjournment is fixed that we never will get down to real work and finish the business of this session. The appropriation bills are practically all out of the way and there is nothing holding the legislature at the present time except the consideration of revenue legislation, all of which, if we are willing to stay here and work until Thursday of this week can be finished up, and all of the work of the session can be completed by June 14th. I sincerely hope that there will be no further delay in fixing the time for final adjournment and that the motion to send this resolution to a Committee for further delay will not prevail.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I think we have no assurance that the House is going to pass any of the legislation referred to. They are practically today where they were in February so far as any legislation being enacted is concerned. The Governor has given notice through the newspapers, I do not know this of my own personal knowledge, but he stated specifically yesterday that if this legislature did not go through with the legislation that was needed to give him the necessary money to carry on his work, that he would call an extra session, and I, for one, in all this heat, do not care to come back. I would like to finish our business. If I were positive that the House was going to pass this legislation, I would be willing to stay here until Saturday, or next Monday, or for two weeks everyday and every night. I would be glad to get through with it. but until we do have that assurance, I do not care to vote for a resolution to adjourn and find that the measures are not passed and then have to come back here to a special session. That is why I oppose the resolution.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I do not find myself in the least bit perturbed by the Governor's threats. It is a matter of very little moment to me what he has to say about how we shall perform our duties. We constitute the legislature. We ought to do whatever we think is right and necessary and not be disturbed in the least by any criticism or threats that may come from the other end of the Capitol building. I am surprised to find my good friend, Senator Long, seeking to send this resolution to a committee. My recollection has been that all session Senator Long has been an exponent of fighting things out on the floor and this is his opportunity to put into practice what he has been telling us all session was the proper thing to do. There could be only one possible motive in referring this resolution to a committee and that would be to secure delay. If this resolution ought to be passed let us vote upon it and pass it, and I would suggest to the Senators who think the resolution ought not to pass, that they vote against it, but do not let us pickle it in committee. Of course, that sounds strange coming from me, but once in a while I can switch a position with my good friend Senator Long.

Mr. LONG. Mr. President, I would like to correct one of the statements made by the Senator from Beaver, Mr. Craig, when he speaks of the Governor making a threat. I believe that there is not a Senator on this floor who is not convinced now, if he was not convinced at the beginning of this session, that the present Governor does not make any threats. There are no threats being made by him at all; he simply stated what would be absolutely necessary if this legislature did not provide the necessary funds for carrying on the affairs of the government. There would be no other thing possible for him to do but to call an extra session, if there are not sufficient funds provided that the government of Pennsylvania may be carried on, even as it is carried on now and has been carried on in the past. Now the House has not passed any revenue bills. We all recognize that the chief business of the legislature is to look after the finances of the State. The State is a great corporation and it must necessarily have finances to carry on its work and that is the main thing that the legislature has to do, and the House has not passed any legislation that must originate there.

We have not had anything to consider and a matter of two weeks may be very much too short a time to consider the matter.

As far as we being the legislative branch of this government is concerned, the Senator from Beaver forgets that the Constitution provides that the Governor has a say in legislation. We are not exclusively the legislative body of the Commonwealth; he is made a constituent part of the legislative body of this Commonwealth and has a very important part in the enactment of a great many measures. I think it would take only a few minutes to pass a resolution to adjourn, when the time comes, and why pass it now and tie our hands and perhaps get ourselves in a very serious predicament. That is the reason I asked that the resolution be referred to a committee, for the purpose of having it considered. I am not loathe to the matter of voting on it here, I am willing to do that so far as I am concerned.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not intend to vote to commit this bill to committee but if it is to be committed to a committee I think it should be committed to the same committee that has had the previous resolutions of a similar character, namely, the Finance Committee.

Mr. LONG. Mr. President, I accept that amendment.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, as the seconder of the motion, I accept the amendment.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion as amended?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, it seems to me that the time has come when we ought to fix the time of adjournment. I have been a member of this Senate, as other Senators have, during a number of sessions and I know that the time of final adjournment was fixed much earlier in the session than it would be to fix it now. It was understood a few weeks ago that the 24th of May would be the time and we extended it and then they were going to vote for the 7th of June, on account of the resolution that has been extended. As has been said, our calendars have been practically cleaned up and if we can pass revenue measures,—we have every reason to believe that we can,—and I hope we can—and other measures, if the members know that it must be done in a fixed time. This session already has been extended long beyond the time we supposed it would be and I feel that in the interest of legislation that we want to pass that we cannot do anything better than to fix this date of adjournment. I hope that the members of this Senate will not think it necessary to refer this resolution to any committee but will act upon it favorably at this time.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I desire to ask the sponsor of the resolution if he has consulted the Governor of the Commonwealth as to the time fixed for adjournment.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I have not. Mr. President, it occurred to me, as has been stated, that we will never get to the end of our work until a time is set for adjournment.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, will state his point of order.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I consider that an impertinent question.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, does the Senator refer to the question by the Senator from Delaware?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I refer to the question as to whether or not the Governor was asked about this matter of final adjournment.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, if it should happen that we are not nearly done at that time the House has the privilege to amend that resolution and we can concur in that amendment when the time comes.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, referring to the remarks of the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, I was not able to catch all of the remarks of the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher. Owing to the intensity of the heat I suppose my friend from Lehigh has been somewhat affected, otherwise he would not have replied to my remarks as he did, because he knows it is not characteristic of my conduct to be impertinent to anybody, especially to a member of this Senate, but I rise as a matter of privilege, as a Senator of this Commonwealth, to inquire into the purpose of this resolution. I had understood that the affairs of this Senate had been so adjusted that we could adjourn on June 21st or at least about June 21st. I may be misinformed about that. I have made my arrangements accordingly and I do not propose to vote for this resolution fixing June 14th unless it is referred to the Finance Committee and then the matter is taken up with the Governor of the Commonwealth to ascertain what his wishes may be in the matter. He is a part of the Government as well as the Senate. We exercise our perogatives, as we may, but at the same time I think that there is some courtesy due the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. There are measures now pending and there may be new measures in which all of us are interested, and it seems to me that if we are going to adjourn next week, on the 14th, that it is very short notice indeed. It is short notice to me and I do not want to go back home to my constitutents and be charged hereafter that this legislature has passed snap judgment, and, therefor, we have not completed the job to which we were assigned and we are bound to come back here in a special session. I will not be a party to placing upon this Commonwealth an additional expense of possibly half a million dollars and I want my vote understood by those present who vote to adjourn on June 14th. My vote shall be recorded against it for that reason.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I think there has been no member of this Senate who has shown more consideration to the wishes of the Governor of the Commonwealth than have I. The Governor of the Commonwealth stated two weeks ago that in his judgment there was no reason why this legislature could not adjourn on June 14th and take a recess of one week, as we did last week. I do not consider, however, that it is absolutely binding upon this legislature to accept any date fixed by the Governor of the Commonwealth. I want to be entirely courteous, always have been and always shall be, to the Governor of the Commonwealth in all matters concerning legislation in which he is interested. I believe that the thing that will hasten the work of this legislature is to fix a certain date for adjournment. As has been said, it takes but a very short time to pass an adjournment resolution, while, on the other hand, it takes but an equally short time to extend the session, if this resolution should be concurred in by the House, and it is found that the business of the legislature can not be finished by the date set in this resolution. These are the reasons why I am earnestly in favor of the adoption of this resolution, and I believe all of us will be helping the Governor of the Commonwealth to get through those matters of legislation in which he is interested by fixing the date on which we would adjourn. I believe that every member of the House and every member of the Senate will show his loyalty to this proposition and give the best services in him and finish up the work at the time fixed for the date of adjournment.

Mr. CHRISTLEY. Mr. President, there seems to be a desire here among some to get an early vote on this question, and I do not desire to prolong the discussion, but I do think it is a pretty important proposition and whether, as has been intimated here, it will embarrass the Governor of this State if when the time fixed shall arrive, or rather it might embarrass us, I am not clear as to where the embarrassment might rest, I do think that before a proposition as important as this is voted on and determined that there should be some consultation and some idea of what the House is going to do with reference to revenue. I am just as willing to get out of this Senate Chamber as anybody else and audjourn and go home; I am just as unwilling to go home until the duties for which we were elected and sent here have been performed in some way. As has been said, we are representing a great Commonwealth, a great corporation. We are short of funds. We must have them. We cannot pay bills with lead pencils and figuring and we cannot pass the buck, we have to meet the emergency that confronts us here as men and we have to meet it squarely and

I do not know any better way to meet it than to stay right here until we get some idea of when we are going to get some action along this line. As I have said before, suppose we fix the time here in this resolution and the House concurs in it, we might reconsider that so far as the Senate is concerned, but the House might refuse and I do not know where we would be. At the present time, I cannot vote for this resolution until we know more about what the other end of the capitol is going to do and until they see some light or some tangible, reliable action and eventuality. I feel as though it would be a mistake at this time to fix the time for adjournment.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I am opposed to the passage of this resolution. I am in favor of referring it to the committee to which resolutions of this character have been previously referred for the reason, first, this Senate has a great responsibility; it owes a duty to the Commonwealth, namely to assist in the furnishing of revenue; and, secondly to make appropriations in order to carry out this government. Surely no member will deny those two responsibilities. It is true I have had no previous experience as to how this Senate, or the House, operates toward the closing of its biennial session, but I do know after an experience of eleven years in Washington, eight years of which were under a Democratic Administration, that there never was a time when there was not a joint committee on the part of the House and Senate to wait upon His Excellency, the President of the United States, in order that there might be co-operation in the time fixed for adjournment, and the committee waited on the President in order that he might send his final message, if he had any, to those two legislative bodies. For the reason that up to the present time there is no evidence on the part of the House of having raised the revenue which it is its duty to do, which we co-operate and assist in, under the Constitution, I hope this resolution will not pass, but that it will be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I want to say that a week ago, or before the recess, the Governor told me that he knew no reason why we should not fix the time of adjournment for the fourteenth, and I want to say that yesterday afternoon or yesterday evening, his Secretary represented to me that he thought everything could be closed up so that we could adjourn on the fourteenth. Now I think this thing works two ways. If we do not fix the time, it is easy to move it along and move it along, and some of us do not care to be here in July and August, or have this thing string out and I think if this resolution is sent over to the House and if they go on and our work is propertly done, we will get home to attend to our own business and to the business of the State.

Mr. SPROWLS. Mr. President, I am heartily in favor of adjourning on the fourteenth and we can do it if we stay on the job a few days more and hustle and the House can do it if we get things in shape. We can do more in the next six or seven days than we have done in the last three weeks if we put our minds down to it. I believe if we fix the date of adjournment we will adjourn. If the House understands that they only have a short time to do business in they will do the business, but if we dilly-dally along and not set a date for adjournment the chances are we will not adjourn in a month. I believe we can get the revenue measures and everything in shape and adjourn on the fourteenth and everybody go home and everybody be happy.

Mr. SISSON. Mr. President, I think the Senate should confer with the House and with the Governor in regard to the time for adjournment and we can have an understanding in regard to it. Senator Baldwin's conference with the Governor is pretty well in line, but we have been delaying here and taking time on account of financing, on account of legislation for providing needed money. The sentiment seems to be that the measures have been agreed upon, the sources from which that money will come. Now if we adjourn without coming to any understanding about any legislation then that may be some excuse for acting on legislation that may not be approved by the public, but it seems to me as though we can have that reasonably well settled upon before adjourning. On the other hand if we can adjourn by the 14th I would be willing, so far as I am concerned to take chances on adjourning on the 14th and this legislation can be arranged by that time.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I think I am ready to quit just as soon as we can get our business completed. I have plenty of business to take care of personally, but I think the time to adjourn is when we have our work done, when we know that everything has been provided for. I do not know of any corporation or any big business that would arrange to adjourn before they knew that everything has been taken care of. We have something to do here and I think we ought to get it done before we talk of adjourning.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I want to voice my dissent, before this vote is taken, to the proposition that the Governor will have to be asked when we can adjourn. I want to say to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Vare, that the legislature of Pennsylvania always, when it has fixed a time for final adjournment and before the hour of final adjournment arrives, appoints a joint committee to advise the Governor that it is about to adjourn and if he has anything further the General Assembly is ready to receive it, but it never asks the Governor when it may adjourn or when it shall adjourn. I am surprised that any friend of the Governor should quote the things which are published in the newspapers about threats or calling special sessions, which I do not believe the Governor ever authorized. Nevertheless he has not denied them, but certainly I as a friend of the Governor would not quote those things, but if he has authorized them, if they come from him, all right, then they are threats. If the Governor of Pennsylvania desires to convene this General Assembly in special session he has that right, but if he convenes us in extraordinary session and we adjourn the next day that is our business. We have been here since January and waiting and waiting and waiting. It is not the fault of the legislature that we have dilly-dallied. We have been waiting for codes and all kinds of construction and misconstruction and we are waiting yet. We have been up with our work all the time. Ask the Governor whether we may adjourn! Has anybody consulted anybody else? Has anybody consulted the State Treasurer or the Auditor General? We may just as well ask them. I deny that the Governor of Pennsylvania is a part of the legislative department of this government. He has the veto power and the power to make recommendations, and that is all. I know that as a friend of the Governor I voice his sentiment when I say he would be delighted to see this General Assembly go home.

Mr. JOYCE. Mr. President, I move to amend the motion by striking out "14" and inserting in lieu thereof "21".

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Joyce that the amendment is not pertinent to the motion. The motion is to refer the resolution to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I agree with the Senator from Delaware, I think the heat has gotten the best of some people of the Senate because they cannot even conceive of what has been said, let alone repeat it. Now the thought was this: That the way in which any team work was done means either success or failure. That is true in athletics, in business, it is true in anything, and the idea of a Senator to stand on the floor of the Senate and say that the Governor of the great State of Pennsylvania is not a part and parcel of the great state! Either from the standpoint of legislative, executive or anything else, they have to dovetail in order to give the people the best service and the best results. Why should they not be consulted? I never saw a captain of a team yet that had ever accomplished anything with his team except when he had them in hand, except when he used teamwork. Now the idea of adjourning without your work having been completed, it seems to me to be silly, Mr. President.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, just one thought more before this vote is taken: The way some of the Senators have been speaking upon this subject it would appear that they think if we were to pass this resolution that would be the end of it, that we would adjourn without concurrence of the House. The House must concur in this resolution and they will know best if they get this resolution whether or not they can adjourn on the 14th. If they can they will say so, and if they cannot they will say so.

There is one other thought I want to call to the attention of the Senate, and that is the expense of running this General Assembly. If I am correctly informed it costs this Commonwealth over $1200 every day of the week, Sundays included, to run this legislature, and that is an item that should be considered by the Senate and House and all the people of the Commonwealth. I hope that this resolution will be passed and sent over to the House for its action.

And the question recurring,

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO PROPOSED GIFT OF FOREST LANDS.

Mr. PHIPPS offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, June 5, 1923.

Whereas, one of the tragedies incident to the disappearance of the forests of Pennsylvania "Penn's Woods" has been the loss of the wonderful primeval trees, the axe, saw and fire having almost obliterated these specimens of that high forest development which gave the Commonwealth renown, and

Whereas, there chances to remain in the Allegheny Plateau, in Northwestern Pennsylvania, the largest remaining stands of virgin white pine east of the Mississippi River which contain many trees that for more than two hundred summers have lifted their spires to meet the sunshine, and a number of which were trees grown tall before our American Colonies were founded, and

Whereas, our timber is the only important natural resource that we renew and perpetuate, and more particularly as white pine is indigenous to Pennsylvania's soils and climate and here reached its highest state of perfection in the East, and furthermore has so largely contributed to the industrial development and fame of the Commonwealth, and

Whereas, it seems meet that there should be preserved at least a remnant of virgin white pine as a sample of the forest glory that once covered vast areas of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, this Commonwealth is prevented by statute from paying in excess of ten dollars per acre for timber lands, and it appears that it is not good policy to extend the large sums necessary to acquire mature timber since cut over lands can be purchased and developed to greater economic benefit, and

Whereas, a group of citizens of this Commonwealth have organized an Asociation for the purpose of purchasing certain areas of virgin timber and presenting the same to the Commonwealth as a gift, and desire assurances, before further steps are taken, as to the acceptibility of such gift, and

Whereas, it is the desire of these citizens that the areas so donated shall become part of the State forest system, subject to its rules, regulations and policies and also to any special provisions as to certain parts of these acres being allowed to remain in their present primeval condition; Now Therefore Be It:

Resolved, (The House of Representatives concurring) that it is to the best interest of the Commonwealth, as a whole, that the proposed gift of forest lands be accepted, and

Resolved, That the Governor of this Commonwealth be and he hereby is authorized to accept the gift from the doners subject to such conditions, stipulations and reservations as may be determined as necessary to carry out the purposes of the bequest, with particular reference to the free use and enjoyment of the same by the people and where birds and wild animals may be seen in their native environment; and

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to the Commissioners of the Forest, the Water Supply and the Highway Department and to the Association of the doners.

Mr. PHIPPS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

Mr. PHIPPS. Mr. President, For the information of the members of the Senate, I wish to state that in Clarion County, in the northwestern part of Pennsylvania, there is a large tract of timber, comprising eight thousand acres, known as Cook's Timberland. The idea of this resolution is this: For a great many years the Committee on Appropriations has been desirous of purchasing this land but on account of the financial condition of the Commonwealth they were not able to appropriate sufficient funds to do so. A group of patrotic citizens now has gone together with the idea of buying the land and presenting it to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and that is the object of this resolution, if it is accepted by the Commonwealth.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am requested by the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. DeWitt, to state to the Senate that the amendments he put in the bill were drawn by the Department of Mines and Mining and that the bill as it now stands is satisfactory to the Commissioner. Senator DeWitt asked me to state for him on the floor of the Senate that in case there was any motion made to put the bill back to Committee he is anxious to have it passed and he did not want it to go back to the committee. He wishes the Senate to understand that the Department of Mines is the one who drew the amendments and that the bill as now amended is satisfactory to the Department.

be recommitted to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. LONG. Mr. President, this bill has been on the calendar for some weeks. At the request of several Senators, I have had this bill go over. There was an amendment finally made to it. Those particular Senators who were opposed to it last evening asked it to go over until today and then left the bill go to a vote. This session is coming to an end, it is said, and this bill if there is objection to it and if we do not want to pass it, we ought to defeat it and not at this time ask for a hearing. It seems to me that the purpose of the motion is only to delay the matter, in as much as we are getting close to the end of the session. You are fixing the date of adjournment and, of course, if you delay bills a little you can defeat them simply by delaying them. This bill would save a million dollars, as I understand it. It would have saved the Commonwealth during perhaps the last four years a million and a half dollars. It has reference to contractors being able to put up securities, certified checks or something like that. They now have to pay bonding companies very large premiums and of course that is added to the cost of the contract with the Commonwealth. I have figures here to show that it practically costs the Commonwealth $825.00 per mile for the bonds that are necessary and which a contractor could avoid were he permitted to use securities, which could be passed upon by the Commissioner of Banking and Highway Commissioner or there might be a certified check instead of a bond. It seems to me it would be a perfectly proper bill. The only opposition that I have learned is the opposition that comes from Surety Companies and you can very readily understand why that is. The Commonwealth should have the opportunity of permitting this that they may save this large sum of money to the tax payers of the Commonwealth. I have no personal interest in it at all, I am not a contractor, I am not connected with the Highway Department. It is a Department bill but the people of the State have a right to have this money saved. We need funds very badly and if this law produces the saving that the Highway Department claims it will produce it certainly ought to pass and this delay will mean practically the killing of the bill, if it is not passed now and sent over to the House. If a hearing is wanted perhaps we can have it over there, but I would ask that this motion be defeated at this time.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1163, as follows:

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1017, (House Bill No. 1256), on third reading, entitled:

An Act imposing a State tax on Liquid Fuels including all liquids ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power and all distillates of and condensates from petroleum natural gas coal tar and vegetable ferments so usable to be paid by dealers as herein defined providing for the collection of such tax and for the distribution and use of the revenues derived therefrom providing for the filing of certificates and reports of the sale of such liquid fuels and the collection of such tax and fixing penalties go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1020, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three entitled "An act imposing a State tax on Liquid Fuels including all liquids ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power and all distillates of and condensates from petroleum natural gas coal tar and vegetable ferments to be paid by distributors as herein defined providing for the collection of such tax and for distribution and use of the revenues derived therefrom providing for the filing of certificates and reports of the sale of such liquid fuels and the collection of such tax and fixing penalties"

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, there seems to be some little misunderstanding as to this bill, Senate Bill No. 1020, and also as to Senate Bill No 1017. I might say that the bill under consideration, No. 1020, is a companion bill of No. 1256, and also that I have no personal interest in either bill. I want to take this opportunity to explain Bill No. 1256, because if that bill does not pass there will be no reason for the companion bill to pass. It provides a better method of collecting the gasoline tax than was provided for in the Act of 1921. This bill specifically repeals the Act of 1921. It provides, among other things, that dealers and distributors shall report to the Auditor General's Department every three months the people to whom they have sold gasoline and other oils which would be affected by this act, so they could check up those who are liable for the tax. It is presumed that in the past a great many have escaped paying the tax on account of not reporting to the Auditor General's Department. This bill, No. 1256, has been agreed upon by the National Petroleum Association, of which Mr. Chamberlain is the Secretary and General Counsel. A hearing was had on the bill and a large number of people who are interested in the measure came here in consultation with the Auditor General, Mr. Lewis, and also in the presence of former Attorney General Brown, who I think looked after the amending of this bill, they agreed upon its passage.

Certainly more revenue will be collected under the gasoline tax of one cent than has been done in the past. It simplifies that collection by making the report every three months instead of monthly and gives a better check on it.

The Act that we are considering now, Senate Bill No. 1020, will have to be amended in the House by putting in the date of the approval of the House Bill 1256, if the Senate wants to pass the bill, and then the two bills will be up to the Governor. Senate Bill 1020 makes an exception, as I am told by Attorney General Brown and others, similar to the exception under the Compensation Act, whereby the farmers and domestic help were excepted from the effects of the bill. It was done by supplementing the companion bill, the same as this. This bill 1020 also defines the term "liquid fuels" as you will see under the last section of the bill. It says:

"The term 'liquid fuels' shall mean all liquids ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power except kerosene fuel oil and gas oil and shall include all distillates of and condensates from petroleum natural gas coal tar and vegetable ferments said distillates and condensates being ordinarily designated as gasoline naptha benzol benzine and alcohols but not restricted to such designations"

If this bill is to become a law we ought to pass it over to the House so that it will go through there to second reading and then if we decide to pass this bill a little later it will be passed and the bill so amended as to be put in proper form.

Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, it does not seem to me that there ought to be opposition to a measure of this kind when representatives of a body of men such as came down here this year to the Auditor General and agreed upon the provisions in both measures. It will mean more money collected, because all of those that have been subjected to the tax will be reported and will be collected from, and under those circumstances I am going to ask the Senate if they think that both bills should be passed to pass Senate Bill 1020 on to the House and it will be on its way.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE MESSAGES.

HOUSE CONCURS IN RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO PROPOSED GIFT OF FOREST LANDS.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate, as follows:

In the Senate, June 5, 1923.

Whereas, one of the tragedies incident to the disappearance of the forests of Pennsylvania—"Penn's Woods"—has been the loss of the wonderful primeval trees, the axe, saw and fire having almost obliterated these specimens of that high forest development which gave the Commonwealth world renown, and

Whereas, there chances to remain in the Allegheny Plateau, in Northwestern Pennsylvania, the largest remaining stands of virgin white pine east of the Mississippi River, which contain many trees that for more than two hundred summers have lifted their spires to meet the sunshine, and a number of which were trees grown tall before our American Colonies were founded, and

Whereas, our timber is the only important natural resource that we can renew and perpetuate, and more particularly as white pine is indigenous to Pennsylvania's soils and climate and have reached its highest state of perfection in the East, and furthermore has so largely contributed to the industrial development and fame of the Commonwealth, and

Whereas, it seems meet that there should be preserved at least a remnant of virgin white pine as a sample of the forest glory that once covered vast areas of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, this Commonwealth is prevented by statute from paying in excess of ten dollars per acre for timber lands, and it appears that it is not good policy to extend the large sums neecssary to secure mature timber since cut over lands can be purchased and developed to greater economic benefit, and

Whereas, a group of citizens of this Commonwealth have organized an Association for the purpose of purchasing certain areas of virgin timber and presenting the same to the Commonwealth as a gift, and desire assurances, before further steps are taken, as to the acceptibility of such gift, and

Whereas, it is the desire of these citizens that the areas so donated shall become part of the State forest system, subject to its rules, regulations and policies and also to any special provisions as to certain parts of these trees being allowed to remain in their present primeval conditions; Now Therefore Be It:

Resolved, (The House of Representatives concurring) that it is to the best interest of the Commonwealth, as a whole, that the proposed gift of forest lands be accepted, and

Resolved, that the Governor of this Commonwealth be and he hereby is authorized to accept the gift from the donors subject to such conditions, stipulations and reservations as may be determined as necessary to carry out the purposes of the bequest, with particular reference to the free use and enjoyment of the same by the people and where birds and wild animals may be seen in their native environment: and

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the secretary of the Commonwealth to the Commissioners of the Forest, the Water Supply and the Highway Department and to the Association of the donors.

Mr. KUNKLE. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GIBBON. Mr. Speaker, if I am in order I would like to explain these amendments.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. GIBBON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, these amendments are to strike out the words, "And shall be awarded only", "with the approval of the controller", subject to' and "Approval by the controller and", which applies to awarding contracts by county commissioners in counties of the 4th class. These are the suggestions offered by the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow, a week ago when this bill was up for passage.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I trust that the gentleman who objected to the insertion of the amendments will withdraw his objection because Mr. Gibbon has introduced amendments to strike out the clauses which gave offense in this bill namely, those making the action of the county commissioners subject to the approval of the controller. His amendments now strike down these two phrases and merely amend the old act by increasing the limit $100 to $300. In all other respects the act stands the same.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. Speaker, after having heard the amendments explained, I am satisfied and I withdraw my objection.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection, and the the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REFUSED.

Mr. HASLETT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to call up at this time on page 18 of to-day-s calendar, Bills on Third Reading, House Bill No. 1424, (Senate Bill No. 464), file folio 3865, for the purpose of amendment.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the calling of this bill out of order?

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, if it is the purpose in calling this bill up out of order in order to have it advanced over the other Senate bills, I will offer objection.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection, and unanimous consent is not granted.

RESOLUTION RECALLING BILL FROM GOVERNOR.

Mr. GOEHRING offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives June 4, 1923.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 367, Printer's No. 1046. File Folio 7265, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh, in the City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Argeeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. STONER,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 607, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Section Fifteen of Article Five of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STONER. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I will not take much time to talk on this proposed constitutional amendment because I am advised that some of my very good friends in Allegheny county are against it. Nevertheless I desire to have a vote on this bill because I consider it is an important one. The bill effects Allegheny county alone, and is a proposed constitutional amendment authorizing a change in the manner of the selection of our Common Pleas Court judges. The idea of the bill is to do away with the election of these judges for long terms, and to provide that the judges shall be nominated by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, appointed by the Governor of the Commonwealth, and ratified by a majority of the voters. Prior to 1850 judges in this Commonwealth were appointed. They are now appointed in Massachusetts and New Jersey and in a number of other states, and the judiciary in those states probably occupy a more certain position in the provinces of national law than do those in the states in which they are elected. Personally it is sufficient to say that I have every confidence in the people in legal matters, I ask you what success you would have if the people as a whole undertook to choose the best physician out of a certain association? What success if the people undertook to choose the best surveyor out of one set of surveyors? The point being that the judges are, or should be, put into their offices on account of qualifications therefor, and desirous as it might be that all of the people have a knowledge at all times of what these qualifications are, it is nevertheless apparent that it is impossible for the mass of people, and not their fault at all, to have a knowledge of the educational qualities and tempermental qualifications which fit a man to become a good judge.

We, at any rate in Allegheny county are willing to try this thing out; that is, a great many of us are, and I believe the bar as a whole is willing to try it out and we are willing, if necessary to set the pace for the whole state, and we believe that eventually it is something that will be adopted by the whole state. The administration of justice has become one of the most important features of government and it is the one feature of government with which every citizen at some time or other, comes in touch. It is therefore, a very desirable thing, a very interesting thing to every person of the Commonwealth to select good judges. I would ask you to give us a chance to try this out in Allegheny county.

Mr. JOSEPH C. MARCUS. This bill substantially means this—call it an amendment to the constitution, if you will—that at the present time the judges are elected by the people for a period of ten years. If they are honest men, they are re-elected, if they are dishonest they are not re-elected, but this amendment practically means that the Supreme Court can appoint judges for life, and any movement to take away from the people the right to select their judges is a dangerous experiment, and I believe I can see the wisdom of defeating legislation of this kind by permitting the people to decide for themselves whether the judges shall remain on the bench or whether they shall not, and to place them for life under a different practice, under a different ruling is a dangerous precedent, and I would ask the members to vote this bill down.

Mr. STONER. Mr. Speaker, the remarks of my friend Mr. Marcus are somewhat out of order it seems at this time, for this is merely a proposed constitutional amendment which goes before the people. It is for them to say whether they want it or not.

On the question, recuring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 448.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 448, File Folio No. 4721, entitled "An act requiring the display of the United States flag at all polling places, providing for its purchase by the county commissioners and its care between elections."

This Bill provides for the expenditure by the county commissioners from the treasuries of the various counties of sufficient money to purchase a "flag, flag staff and the necessary appliances, therefore for each election district."

It is believed that there are now more than 9,000 elections districts in the State. In Allegheny County alone the number of election districts increased from about 700 to about 1600 within the last four years. It is plain that the number will reach at least 10,000 in a comparatively short time.

Many bills have already been approved at this Session to put new or additional expenses on the counties, and although it is fine and patriotic to have the flag displayed frequently when and where people are gathered together, nevertheless, I am not willing to add this expense, which might easily reach a total of $500,000, to the counties of the State at this time when funds available for co-operation with the counties, like these for State-aid roads and common school purposes, are so deficient.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. BOBACK,

That the question together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 351.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 25, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 351, entitled, "An Act to amend section forty-two of the act, approved the fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and thirty-seven), entitled 'An act relating to counties and townships and county and township officers', by making county treasurers agents of the Commonwealth in collecting and transmitting money for the Commonwealth and providing their compensation for such services."

This bill amends Section 42 of the Act of April 15, 1834, by making the county treasurer of each county the agent of the Commonwealth for the collecting and transmitting of money for the Commonwealth and providing that he may deduct for his own use certain commissions on such accounts as he is required to keep and settle.

The Act of 1834 applies to all counties, irrespective of size. Section 5 of Article XIV of the Constitution provides that all county officers who are salaried shall pay all fees into the county or State treasury, and also provides that in counties of 150,000 inhabitants and upwards all such officers shall be placed on a salary basis.

The reason for making the treasurer the agent of the Commonwealth is to be found in certain cases in which treasurers on a salary basis attempted to collect commissions on license fees collected; i. e., mercantile, billiard and pool, brokers, amusement places, eating houses, liquor, and on personal property taxes, the last of which is the case of Bachman's Appeal, 274 Pa. Super. Ct., page 420, where it is held that the officer has no right to such fees unless the Act makes him an agent for that purpose.

The orginal application of this rule was made in the Act providing for the collection of collateral inheritance taxes, which made the Register of Wills the agent of the Commonwealth for the collection of the same and has resulted in the collection and retention by the Registers of Wills of very large sums of money in addition to their salary paid them. This provision has been upheld as not in violation of the constitutional prohibition in several cases.

In Luzerne County vs. Morgan, 263 Pa. 458, Chief Justice Brown refers to this legislation as unwise and extravagant and that it should be speedily corrected, adding that "If we could give relief to a wronged public, we would do so, but we cannot, and they look for it to their representatives now in session." In the same case a very strong dissenting opinion was filed by the present Chief Justice, in which he indicates his belief that any Act whch gives fees or commissions to a salaried county officer is in violation of the above mentioned section of the Constitution.

Agreeing with the above citations from the case of Luzerne County vs. Morgan, I cannot approve of any extension of this policy.

In addition to the above reason, it would raise dangerous questions to appoint the county treasurer the agent of the Commonwealth for the collection of money due the Commonwealth and allowing him a commission thereon. This appointment is not limited to the collection of money for certain licenses or other purposes named, but for all money due the Commonwealth. Does such authority include the collection of county and corporation taxes? of money due the Commonwealth for the maintenance of the insane? money due from the counties on road construction? It is not the intention of the Bill to do so, but the phraseology is so broad that question of that kind will arise. For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding.

A motion was made by Mr. COLDSMITH.

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 353.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 353, entitled "An act to amend section eight of the act approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred and fifty-nine), 'An act for the better protection of fish; requiring citizens of the United States, residing within this Commonwealth, to procure a license from the county treasurer to fish or angle in the waters of this Commonwealth, or in the waters bounding or adjacent thereto, and regulating the issuance of such license; providing penalties for the violation of this act, and the manner of proceeding to enforce compliance therewith; and providing for the disposition of the penalties recovered and license fees received,' by making county treasurers agents of the Commonwealth in collecting license fees and issuing licenses."

Under the provisions of the Fish Law of May 16, 1921, the county treasurers collect for the Commonwealth the license fees paid by fishermen. Some of the county treasurers turn these fees into the county treasury; others keep them for their own use.

This Bill proposes to provide clearly that irrespective of their salaries, the county treasurers may keep the commission of ten cents on each fisherman's license for their own use. This provision is directly contrary to the principle that the fees collected by officers of the counties should belong to the county treasury and that the treasurers themselves should receive adequate salaries, together with actual and necessary expenses, to compensate them for their official services, and nothing more.

Instead of providing that the fees shall be kept by the county treasurers for their own use, the Bill should have directed that all these fees must be paid into the county treasuries.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. COLDSMITH,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

BILL ON SECOND READING.
(SPECIAL ORDER).

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1618 (Senate Bill No. 586), entitled:

An Act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and certain existing and certain new Administrative Departments Boards Commissions and officers abolishing combining changing the names of reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative Departments Boards Commissions Bureaus Divisions offices and Agencies defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative Departments Boards and Commissions fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain Departments Boards and Commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the Deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain Departments Boards and Commissions shall be determined

The first section of article one was read as follows:

ARTICLE I

SHORT TITLE AND GENERAL REORGANIZATION PROVISIONS

Section 1 Short Title Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That this act shall be known and may be cited as "The Administrative Code"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if it were not for the fact that I consider a reorganization of the departments of this Commonwealth to be a very important matter, I would hesitate on a warm day like this to take up the time of the House that will be necessary to discuss the amendments that I have to offer to this bill. I want to say, however, that, as many of you remember, even back as far as 1919 I personally gave the matter of the reorganization of the departments of this commonwealth serious consideration, and since 1919 I have made a thorough study of the organization and the administration of these departments. I went to Governor Sproul and made certain suggestions to him. He agreed with me that this was a thing that should be done. I asked him to do it. He asked, however, to defer action until the next session which would be his second two years. He also said at that time that there were some things that he had taken into consideration with the Secretary of Internal Affairs and was going to place under the Secretary of Internal Affairs, as the Constitution provides, certain administrative duties, and then he said "that will be a step in the right direction and in 1921 we can go ahead and carry out these provisions." In 1921, however, and that was one of the questions upon which Governor Sproul and I differed in the last session, instead of doing that, he appointed a commission and as you know that commission has been working for two years on the question of reorganization. It is not that commission, however, recommending this code to you and to the legislature as a whole.

Now, I would like to have you bear with me a little bit because this is important to you, it is just as important to every member of this House as it is to me notwithstanding this has been a hobby that I have been riding for four years, and yet at the same time that you are just as much interested in the welfare of this great Commonwealth and in the economical and efficient administration of its affairs as I am, I have given this matter thorough investigation, and I have spent considerable time upon it. If anybody would see the corrections that I have here, the analysis that I have made of it, you would agree with me that this is not only for the purpose of raising objections. In the first place, I believe that this code as it is recommended here to this House, and I have no other method of knowing who recommended it, except what the newspapers say. The newspapers say, and some letters that I have received say it is the Governor's code. That is the only way that I know that he has anything to do with it. It makes no difference, however, I am not attacking it for that purpose. I wish he had followed the Constitution of Pennsylvania, as he has preached throughout this State for us to follow the Constitution of the United States, and there would be no difference between he and I upon the reorganization of these departments. I don't know what the people had in mind when they prepared this code. I can find nothing that might guide them. They don't seem to have any fixed star which they were following. They simply made changes for the purpose of making changes, and the result is a piece of the most vicious legislation which they have asked you to pass that I have ever heard presented to this House, and I say that without fear of contradction. If Matthew Stanley Quay or Boise Penrose or some other organization men proposed such a thing as this he would be taken out and shot at sunrise—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I have no desire to cut off debate at this time. We should all like to have the benefit of any suggestions coming from the gentleman from Delaware, but it seems to me that these remarks at this time are out of order, as I understand we are taking up the bill section by section. We are now considering the first section, and if there are amendments to the first section, I assume that we may discuss these particular things, but is seems to me at this time that Mr. Alexander is discussing the entire bill which should really be done when the bill is up for final passage. I, therefore, rise to the point of order that the gentleman is not confining himself to the discussion of the particular section which is before the House.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I heartily agree with the gentleman from Philadelphia on his point of order, but I ask this special privilege at this time because to argue each amendment as it comes before this House will take a very great deal more time than it will to make a general resume of the bill at this time. Instead of taking up each amendment as I have it, I am doing this for the purpose of saving time. I agree with the gentleman exactly that it is not the proper order, but to take up each amendment will mean a great loss of time for this House, which I am trying to save by a very few remarks. I would like to ask the indulgence of the Speaker of this House—

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I did not understand the purpose of the gentleman from Delaware, and I desire to withdraw my point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. As I was saying, I don't want to take up your time but I am trying to save time.

Now, what does this bill do? This bill absolutely as it stands abolished every statutory office. It absolutely abolishes every statutory salary. It gives the Governor full power to fix salaries, make appointments, to assign assistants, to appoint deputies, and have them do whatever he says to do. Now, mind you, this places that power in the man's hands who is only elected by the people for four years, the present Governor only is in power for four years. You don't know what the next four years will bring forth. Now then, that is such a power that was never intended by the people of the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and I will point out to you the reason why. I want to say further than that they speak about the cutting out of bureaus and commissions, they speak about the cutting down of Departments. If there is anything in that, the amendments which I offer gives them five bureaus because outside of the Constitutional offices, which they cannot change, and in that we are alike, they have 18 departments, and there are 13 in my program. They have five independent commissions and bureaus, with the State Police in the way they have been placed, where I have, including the State Police, five independent bureaus and commissions, and that includes the Commissioner of Accounts and Sinking Funds, the Commissioner of the Board of Pardons, which make a special and separate part of this, which I say it should be. One of the ideas of this program making is it is provided that the Attorney General of the Commonwealth shall be the prosecuting attorney and then putting the Board of Pardons under him and providing that the fellow prosecuted by him shall go to him and ask for a pardon to be released. That is one of the absurdities of this bill.

The next absurdity of the bill is the proposition where they take the Topographical and Geological Survey from the Secretary of Internal Affairs and putting it in Forestry. I asked them what connection Forestry had with the Geological Survey. They told me that it related to the surveys. I said, "So does Agriculture, why don't you put it in that?" And if that is the best excuse they have I will give you an excuse for not taking it from where it is.

Their department is provided for in your Constitution of 1874, and as I said before I can find no place, and mind you, gentlemen, if you have a surveyor, or if you have some man that will run certain lines for you, the first thing he looks for is to place a monument somewhere by which he can go. I can find here in this program no fixed monument, neither the starting point nor the place where they are going to end. I will refer you to the proposition that I am giving you, let me say just this before that, this program laid down for us today is as far from the question of democracy as anything I ever say. It has only been a few days since we wore the poppy in commemoration of the boys who fought across the seas that democracy should be extended throughout the world, we have here a proposition that strikes down democracy and brings oligarchy and monarchy of the worst type. Now what do I do with my recommendations here, what is it that I proceed on? I take first the history of this great Commonwealth, now let me say again, I have a fixed amendment and I go back,..please people, just give me your attention a short time, it is important, it may not be as interesting to you as it has been to me in making this study, but at least give me your attention for a little while, and I will not take any longer time than necessary. It is hard to talk in this room at best, but when there is noise continually, I know that some of you are not getting what I am saying, and it may not be worth getting, but let me have the benefit of believing that you are instered at least.

Now, then, taking first the Constitution of 1790, it provides placing all the power in the Governor, Article 2 of Section 1 providing that the supreme executive power in this Commonwealth shall be vested in the Governor. Section 8 of the same article provides: "He shall appoint all officers whose offices are established by the Constitution, or shall be established by law, and whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for." Under this Constitution all the judges of the Supreme Court and of the county and district, the justices of the peace, prothonotaries, register of wills, secretary, treasurer, sheriff or any other office in this State to which a salary is by law annexed and two persons elected for each of the offices and of the two persons so chosen the Governor appointed one. Thus you can see that the whole of the former power was there vested in the Governor just as proposed in this code. That was back in 1790, but in 1838, the people not being satisfied with that appointive power as vested at that time, framed what has become known as the Reform Constitution of 1838, and in that they took every appointment away from him except the appointment of the judges of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and not satisfied even with that, they gave that a trial until 1850, and in 1850 they took even that away from him and in 1851, you elected your first judges in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Now, they went on in that way until your Constitutional convention of 1874, and let us look at the Constitution of 1874. After their experience from 1850 to 1874, did the people of Pennsylvania repent for what they had done? Let us look at the Constitution. Instead of one executive they appointed and they provided in that Constitution, the executive power shall be vested in 8 members, to wit, the governor, the lieutenant governor, the attorney general the auditor general secretary of the treasury, secretary of state, secretary of internal affairs and the superintendent of public instruction..I think I have named 8 of them; and not satisfied with that, they proceeded on down the line and said absolutely under the constitution under which we are working at the present time, what each department shall do. If you will study the Constitution and the scheme as laid down in that Constitution, you will see that each one had its respective powers and its respective executive and administrative powers with the proper checks and balances that every properly regulated government must have. That is one of the best schemes if you will study it, that I have found for many years. Now, let us see: It is provided further, and it says that he shall appoint, the Governor shall appoint, his Attorney General, he shall appoint the Secretary of State and he shall appoint the Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years. It also says that the people assume the powers which they didn't have up until the Reform Constitution of 1838. They say we will elect, however, besides the governor, we will elect the Lieutenant Governor, we will elect the Auditor General, we will elect the State Treasurer, we will elect the Secretary of Internal Affairs. The five Constitutional Officers for a term of years they held to themselves, that they had the power to elect without concerning any body else or without interference even of the Governor himself If you will look at your Constitution, none of those executive officers are printed in italics or even underlined showing that it was not the intent of the people of Pennsylvania the framers of the Constitution, to make any differences except as is set out in the paragraph as follows: Now, I want to call your attention to another very important thing Of all of the elective offices in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania there is but one that is permitted to succeed himself, and that officers who is permitted to succeed himself is the Secretary of Internal Affairs. Now, I want to say, and I want to ask you, isn't that proof of the fact, following out what I have to advise later on, isn't that the fact that it was the intention of the people who framed this Constitution, the framers of the Constitution that that offices should be the bid administrative, executive officers of this Commonwealth? Now, let us see what they did as far as the duty of the Secretary of the Commonwealth is concerned, I want to call your attention to this fact, that in no way in this Constitution does it provide that the members of the Legislature shall appoint officers to do duties that is not to be performed, that is to be performed by anyone of those officers, and therefore I say that they intended this: The Secretary of Internal Affairs shall exercise the power and perform all the duties of the Governor General. Now, so that we may see just what that means, the Governor General ladies and gentlemen, is the oldest officer in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Surveyor General, I have been corrected by my friend from Philadelphia, the Surveyor General is the oldest officer in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He was appointed the William Penn before even there was a Governor of the Commonwealth, so show you that the office of Secretary of Internal Affairs is the oldest office in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania today, what else was he to do? His department, now mind you, here is one thing I want to call your attention to, his department shall embrace a bureau of Industrial Statistics. He shall discharge such duties with respect to corporations charitable institutions, agricultural, mining, mineral and timber, and other material, and those interests of the state as may be prescribed by law. Nowhere else in the Constitution does it provide that the Legislature shall prescribe by law that those duties shall be done or performed by any other constitutional officer. Therefore, my proposition is that everyone of those departments or bureaus, you might call them, forestry included, and you may say as someone said here some time ago, "you mean to put forestry under the Secretary of Internal Affairs." If you will look you will find the Bureau of Forestry of the great United States is in the Department of the Interior, and I contend that everyone of those departments can be placed under one head with one general overhead expense. It will save at least in this Commonwealth a million dollars if it will save a cent, and I will show you why I say it. The Department of Internal Affairs at the present time has in it one of the best bureaus of Statistics that you can find anywhere. There is no reason why the statistics cannot be used for other departments in this Commonwealth, yet in the Public Service Commission they have a bureau of statistics and accounts and they are asking you this year to appropriate $49,000 to carry it on. There is one item alone, and when you innumerate the bookkeeping, innumerate the clerks, innumerate the great part of it that can be saved there is no economy, and no reason given by the gentleman who wrote this code. Before this committee he said that he could not say that there was any economy in this, that the economy was a secondary matter, that efficiency and fiscal control and functioning was first in mind. I want to ask you now, taking that question in hand, how under the sun the topigraphical and geological survey as prescribed by the Constitution of Pennsylvania and now functioning as it is under the Secretary of Internal Affairs, where it coordinates at the present time with the Highway Department, with the Auditor General, in making up his tax bills for the Highway Department, with the Water Supply Commission and with the other departments of this government who can that function any better than it does at the present time if you put it under one of the bureaus that this should be under the Secretary of Internal Affairs. Mind you too, that the bureau as important as it is, finding out what the minerals of this Commonwealth are, with that proviso that the head of that department, according to the code as presented to you today can be changed every four years, there is no continuity in this program from beginning to end. But I say if you put these departments, as the Constitution provides, every one of them, under the Secretary of Internal Affairs then you will have a continuity, because that officer, if he is a proper officer and performs his duty as you think he should, can be re-elect term after term as long as you are satisfied to re-elect him and as long as you have a man as efficient as Mr. Woodward has shown himself in that department, I don't think you will want to get rid of him for a while because the saving to this Commonwealth by this readjustment I say will save millions of dollars to a cent saved by this other so-called reorganization. Yes, I am for reorganization; I am for reorganization in substance and not in form and when the North American said that I had forgotten my call to the Legislature to benefit from the victory of Governor Pinchot they erred. No, I haven't forgotten it; it is a sad dream to me because when I made promises I made them in substance and not in form. When I told the man I was going to give him bread I did not hand him a stone. I am following the precepts that have been followed by the people of this Commonwealth for years and that had been handed down to us and in which we will make no mistake now in following. Mr. Speaker, I offer at this time the following amendments.

Mr. JOSEPH C. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, before offering the amendments to this Reorganization Code, I am taking the liberty of explaining it to you in order that there may not be any confusion as to what these amendments constitute. The amendments that I am about to offer are the amendments pertaining to the department of the Secretary of Internal Affairs. This code, as now constituted, takes the department of Geological Survey from the department of the Secretary of Internal Affairs and places it in the department of Forestry and Water, and I am asking you to have that stricken from the code so that it will be placed back in the department where it originally belongs. It may be interesting to the members of this House to hear a brief history of this department. Originally, it was merely a division presided over by two officials. Its headquarters were in the city of Kittanning, Pennsylvania, and the Appropriations Committee from time to time gave it only a little money to function. Mr. Woodward, who is now Secretary of Internal Affairs, realizing the great work that this department could do, convinced Governor Sproul to create this department of Geological Survey and placing it in a position where it would do the work that it has so tremendously and powerfully accomplished. There has been no criticism directed against this department. It has done a most wonderful work, co-operating with the Highway Department in locating quarries; and if you will recall, when there was an embargo on stone it was this department that located quarries for the Department of Highways. It has from time to time co-operated with the Auditor General's Department and has done wonderful work, and I might call you attention to the fact that when the present Governor of Pennsylvania was in the Department of Forestry, he complimented this department on the work that it has done in co-operating with his department and its efforts to make Pennsylvania a real place for the development of its mineral fields. Therefore, I am of the conclusion that this department should not be taken from the Department of the Secretary of Internal Affairs, but that it should be stricken from the code and placed back into the Department of Internal Affairs, and under those circumstances I am offering these amendments.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I should like to offer the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 586, the bill now under consideration before the House. The amendment is only a minor one, and it only restores back into the Code the salary that is now paid to the State Board of Medical Licensure and Education. This board, ladies and gentlemen, at the present time is comprised of the most intelligent and educated physicians in Pennsylvania.

We have men on that board whose practice and whose specialty in their profession places them paramount and on a basis with the best that is within our Commonwealth, and the physicians of Pennsylvania feel justly proud that in this Keystone State, they elevated the standard of the medical profession, equal to that of New York or to any of the other states of the Union, that aimed to safeguard public life in its practice. The framers of this code in their wisdom saw fit to take away the salary and make it a per diem day cost, and I feel, ladies and gentlemen of the House, that in so doing that this board will lose some of its very best men, who out of pride in their profession are willing to at least make some sacrifices, but to ask me of a high standard and qualification to sit on a board, to be paid the nominal fee of $15.00 per diem I think is absolutely absurd. This is the same salary that the nurses board will get under this code. These men, ladies and gentlemen, have many questions to discuss and to honestly, thoroughly and intelligently deliberate upon. They have charge of all the hospitals in the Commonwealth. They arrange for the entrance at these various hospitals, they hear the prosecution for violations of acts charging doctors with doing operations, of entering in the narcotic traffic and many other cases are presented to them that it takes from two to three days to hear them. They travel the State over in making their inspectioes to see that hospitals are located properly and live up to the qualifications required by law. They have charge of the midwifery ladies and gentlemen of the House, and I think it is almost a sin and a crime to ask them to accept the compensation of $15.00 per day, and I feel sure that if this bill becomes a law that there will be men that will be placing these jobs on the auction block and in the licensing to practice medicine in Pennsylvania, and we wll lose that high standard of men who now represent that board. I hope ladies and gentlemen that you will support this amendment.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I have several amendments here I want to offer, taking the State Insurance Fund out of the present Reorganization Code and keeping it intact as it was originally. It establishes a seperate bureau in line with the Public Service Commission and the Fish and Game Commission, and it keeps the State Treasurer as head of the board that is created instead of the Secretary or the Commissioner of Labor and Industry. This insurance fund was created after seven years of study by insurance men. They were given $500,000 by the two Legislatures of 1915 and 1917, and in 1921 they returned the entire $500,000 to the State. All of the property that they now own was paid for out of the profits derived from its business and it absolutely self-supporting and returns dividends to its 21,806 policy holders every year, amounting in 1921, to $812,000. It is the property of the policy holders of this State, and should only be connected with the State government by having the Auditor General take care of the auditing of their accounts. Such a bill has been passed at this session of the Legislature. I am not in favor of the State going into business when this concern acts as a lever to it and is the solution to the entire problem of State compensation insurance. The experiences of this department are used as a basis for fixing all of the compensation insurance rates. Naturally, if they were abolished or crippled you would possibly have advancing rates and would certainly not have the opportunity of using them as a lever. It acts as the protector to all employers and employees and all citizens of the State, because it keeps compensation rates low. I think, gentlemen, that it should be retained the way it has been in operation under the act of 1915. I therefore submit the following amendments.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in presenting these amendments there is one thing that I forgot to call your attention to which I would like to explain so you will understand them. On the first page of those amendments I have changed somewhat the phraseology, as far as section two is concerned on page five of the Code. In other words, instead of saying that certain existing departments, boards, commissions and offices are abolished to accomplish the purpose of this act, all places and positions except those specifically retained by this act hereinbefore mentioned under the executive and administrative bureaus, divisions, boards, commissions, offices and agencies of the State government and in order that the several executives and administrative departments excepting the Department of the Auditor General and the State Treasurer and the Department of Internal Affairs are hereby abolished, instead of by an omnibus clause abolishing all those not further included, I specifically abolish the one which I propose to abolish, and that is the first amendment that is offered here to section two. Instead, I say, inferentially or practically abolishing by refusing to mention them, specifically and cut them out in my amendments.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I take it that the consensus of opinion of this House and of this Assembly and of previous Assemblies is that the government of this State should be reorganized. That was approved by the electors in approving the platform of the present Governor on November last. It was endorsed by other political parties, endorsed by many civic organizations, so that I take it, it is the judgment of all that the government should be reorganized. I think we can go a step further and say that the present Code which is before you is an honest and an intelligent attempt to effectuate that purpose. This Code was introduced into the Senate on March 27th. It was referred to the Committee on Finance. A large number of amendments were offered. Public hearings were held and all persons who desired to be heard for or against the bill were given an opportunity. The Finance Committee after a very careful consideration and with considerable indulgence to all, made quite a number of amendments, and this Code passed the Senate by a very large majority, only a few votes being recorded against it. It came over to the House, it was referred to a committee, and the amendments which were offered today, I take it, were largely offered to that committee which passed judgment thereon and accepted some amendments which are now included in the Code. The bill has been reprinted many times. If any of these amendments are inserted, it means that this Code must be reprinted, which may take several days. If these amendments are inserted, of which no doubt many of them were refused by the Senate, it means that the bill has to go back there and probably will go to a conference committee. It therefore, is a dangerous thing, and I take it, ought not to be done; therefore we should not pass any of these amendments, but reject every one. We are in the closing days of this session. It is the desire of this Assembly that we adjourn as early as possible, and I take it that the best way to accomplish that purpose is to pass this Code today on second reading without amendments and also your tax measures tonight, and put yourselves in shape for an early adjournment.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny in just a few words, the amendments which I am offering were the compilation, as I understand the amendments, of the Auditor General and the State Treasurer, which are only a few of the amendments which I have here, and were never offered to either committee. I believed, and I still believe that this House, consisting of two hundred six members, in considering a bill as important as this is, should act upon it as a whole and not as a subcommittee or a committee. You men on a matter as important as this, are not going to evade your duty just because it is hot and just because you want to get home and just because you have business to do, because this is more vitally important to you and your constituents and to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania than anything else. You have done your sworn duty and so have I. There is no man in this House that wants to get home quicker than I do, but I have made my vow, I have sworn to do as I believe it proper to do, and I will stay here until the 24th of December to do my duty as I see it rather than "shyst" one minute of it, and that I believe is the sentiment of every man and woman in this House. As much as you want to get home, you are going to see that your work is done properly and right and you are going home with the idea that you have done your best, that you haven't "shysed" one thing and you're going with the idea that you are doing the right thing.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I think you will all agree with me that it is almost too hot a day to be wishing our friend from Delaware a merry Christmas. I think we can stay and do the work now, and that is why we are here. If you will bear in mind the number of bodies that have been studying State reorganization, if you will bear in mind the commission appointed by the previous Governor, Governor Sproul, you will keep before you the recommendations made by Pennsylvania State associations which study the same subject, you will keep in mind the fact that the various members of this House have for weeks been in touch with their own senators and members of the administration and endeavoring to make changes in this Code on the other side, so as to shorten our labor when it got here. You will note that we are not trying in any way to derogate from the power of this House when we say we should like to have this Code passed now in the form in which it is. If I may be permitted to speak personally, when the Code first appeared, I, like my good friend from Delaware, became convinced when I read it that there were serious errors in the Code as it then was written, and I called to see the Governor about it. I talked to heads of departments about it and I talked to senators about it. The type of thing that we felt we couldn't vote for has been taken out. The particular proviso relating to the Legislative Reference Bureau has very properly been eliminated; the proviso that the state police should not be put into the Department of the Atorney General has very properly been stricken out, and it ought to have been stricken out; the combination of the Banking Department and the Insurance Department, two mighty well managed departments, a combination, I say, has been eliminated, and so it should. We don't need to make unnecessary departments of this kind; things of that sort have taken place on the other side. We have read about it from day to day. You have followed the debate upon each particular section from day to day. The questions relating to salary referred to by our friend from Delaware, were mentioned over there. True it is, the phraseology of some his proposed amendments were not offered to the Senate, but equally true it is that all these questions came before them. True it is, the questions about the salary of the Auditor General and the State Treasurer and the Adjutant General and so on down through the line were discussed, debated and finally entered into the Code in the form in which it came over to you. Now, it seems to me that this isn't something that is sprung on us anew. Senator Woodward, for example, who was on the commission appointed by Governor Sproul was one of those that voted for this Code as it came over to us. Senator Woodward was in doubt, but the doubts that you and I have can't be consulted at this late day as to whether there should be a number of bills presented or one bill or if you put this Code in its present form. It may be allright, but we are further advised that it may take a number of years of operation to make the type of changes that our brother from Delaware wants us to make. Look, for example, at the old penal code of 1860. Why, our Supreme Court here, a half a year ago was making a new construction of that old criminal code of 1860. And here is an Administrative Code that is going to affect the management of our whole State. Now, the man who is elected and his Democratic opponent, Mr. McSparran, both pledged themselves to the type of budgetary reform, reduction of departments and bureaus and to the question of saving the State all of these little extra salaries on the side. This has been very throughly understood and both candidates went on record; their pledges weren't very far apart, so that, had the other man been elected, the same Code in substantially the same form would have become before us to vote. I think that we ought to vote upon it. I think that it is pretty late day, considering the number of weeks it has been in the Assembly, we have had our chance for participation, for us to go into a matter of a hundred or more amendments of this kind. It was mentioned by our friend from Delaware, for example, that the Department of State Police is left high and dry. No, it is not; it is right where it belongs. It is independent of these other organizations, it is amended out, and so it should have been done. It was mentioned here that the salaries are entirely eliminated. No, they are not. If you will look at Section 208, you will find that salaries are coordinated as to those of the subordinate officers and employees and this bill now deals with the subject as was not done before. It fixes a method of standardizing salaries of like kind and after the board once fixes these standard salaries they are going to stick that way, we are not going to have a stenographer in one department getting $600.00 and a stenographer in another department getting $1200.00 for the same kind of service. Today only twenty-five per cent of the salaried jobs in this State Organization are fixed by statute. The other seventy-five per cent are fixed by the heads of the departments without any supervision anywhere at all, even in the Governor's office or in the state legislature unless you want to go out and pass a new law. This attempt to standardize and to fix the power of the control, and don't forget one thing, whatever the party you may belong to, whatever group of any individual party you may belong to, the man who goes before the people of the State and takes pledges as the Governor, he is the man that has a platform to uphold. The candidates of both parties have platforms. Now, let him redeem those promises. He is one who is called on to redeem them. The Secretary of Internal Affairs, the Auditor General, the State Treasurer dont' go before the people of the State at times with platforms. It is the man who is at the head of the party ticket. He has got to make good, and if he dosn't make good it is a reflection on him and it is a reflection on the party that elected him. Now, why should we proceed to amend into this Administrative Code certain things that were taken out on the other side after due deliberation by all the members there, who had the chance to participate; and I just want to mention one section. Some body else talked in their speech about the transfer back again to the Department of Internal Affairs of the Topographical and Geological and Geological Survey, but I want to call your attention to just one section of the Constitution of the State which is found on page 365 of Smull's Hand Book, where under Article IV, Section 19, it is provided that "the Secretary of Internal Affairs shall exercise all the powers and platform all the duties of the Survey General, subject to such changes as shall be made by law." You and I and others here are making those changes in the law. That is what this does; there is nothing strange about it. Referring, for example, to the compensation alluded to by our friend, Dr. Steedle of Allegheny County, the members of his board receives through the Act, fifteen dollars per diem for every day's services rendered. There is no doctor, there is no man serving the State on those boards who can be compensated by a salary of fifteen dollars per diem or $1500.00 per annum. They are doing that as a matter of patriotic and professional and business and civic interests to their State in a way that their salary cannot compensate. Under the present law we have the Veterinarian Board getting one thing; we have the Nurses' Board getting another, the Dental Board getting still another, the Board of Medical Licensure getting still another. Now, what this proposes to do is put them all on the same basis. They are all the servants of the State; they are all doing work, and for each day's work that they do, there is due, depending upon the type of men we select, an equitable compensation, plus their desire to help the State. Finally the suggestion made by our friend Mr. Haas, about the workmen's department. There is no change. If you will read the section on that, you will find that the law is just as it was before. Look at Section 1711, where the State Workmen's Insurance Board is subject to any inconsistent provisions to this act. You will find that the State Workmen's Insurance Board will continue to exercise the powers and perform the duties by law imposed upon the said Board. There is no change there of any moment. I think for the redemption of the pledges of all the candidates, not of one, and the redemption of our own pledges, we ought now to vote for this thing, which is substantially a forward step in State administration. I ask for the support of the bill as it now comes before you, and ask you to vote down the various amendments.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, replying to the gentlemen from Allegheny, who offers an amendment restoring the Bureau of Topography and Geological Survey to the Department of Internal Affairs I think one reason should be made clear. Members of this House it is true that this code abolished the Bureau of Survey, but it abolishes it merely on paper. It transfers the Department or the Bureau of Survey to the new department of Forests and Waters. In that sense it does not show a lack of recognition of the very valuable work of the Bureau of Surveys, rather, it implies a very high recognition of the value to the state and the people of the whole state of the work of this bureau of Topography and Geological Survey. Section 1605, paragraph (a) states very clearly the meaning of the bureau of Topographic and Geological Survey, "To undertake conduct and maintain the organization of a thorough and extended survey of the state for the purpose of elucidating the geology and topography of the state. Such survey shall disclose such chemical analysis and location of ores, coals, ores, clays, soils, fertilizing and of other useful minerals and of waters as shall be necessary to afford the agricultural, mining, metallurgical, and other interests of the state and the public a clear insight in the character of its resources. It shall also disclose the location and character of such rock formations as may be useful in the construction of highways or for any other purpose." That is a clear statement of the meaning, the general meaning of the Bureau of Topographic and Geological Survey. Now, the really important reason for placing the Bureau of Topographic and Geological Survey, or transferring its affairs to the Department of Forests and Waters is simply the fact that the question of stream flow and forests are inseparable they must be considered together. Likewise in conjunction with the giant power scheme, perhaps the most farsighted plan that this Legislature has had to consider, a close harmony is necessary between the work of the Bureau of Survey and the Department of Forests and Waters. Mere cooperation is not enough, the two should be an identical organization. Now, it is true as I said at the beginning that the Bureau of Topographic and Geological Survey is abolished but the fact remains it becomes a division, if you will, in the new Department of Forests and Waters. Their excellent work is recognized, and it is no disparagement upon the work of the Bureau of Survey, rather, I wish to make it clear, it is a recognition of the invaluable character of the work of that survey, and an attempt to get the utmost usefulness for the people of the whole state out of the work of that bureau. Now, it may not be perhaps a happy change in name. If this new department had been called the Department of Forests, Minerals and Waters, or the Department of Natural Resource, because that is what it is, that might possibly take care of the sensibilities of anyone personally identified with the Bureau of Topographic and Geological Survey but you may say as a matter of common sense that it is simply a question of name. The primary function is there, and its function is enhanced to the utmost by this proposed change in the code. Now, it may be in view of the passage of time since the code was introduced in the Senate long ago, that we have nothing but delay, it is opinion of those who desire this code that a vote for an essential amendment is simply a vote against the code. If you wish to vote against the code you can do that later, and a vote for a trivual amendment is unnecessary. I believe it is the sense of this House, a majority of this House that we should proceed without further delay to vote upon the code as it now stands, and I ask you, therefore, members of the House to vote down all amendments.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker, in answer to my good friend from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow, with reference to section 1711, which states, "subject to any inconsistencies in this act it shall go on as before, I want to call to his attention that if he will thoroughly read the code he will find that the amendments which I have offered cover these inconsistencies and strike them out, so that paragraph 1711 is amended to make it stand as before. These amendments were not offered in the Senate, and as to the question of it being to late, that does not enter into it. We are here to make the laws of the state, we are just as consciencious in that as any other body. I am here to finish the job and finish it right. I have been a student of compensation insurance for years, and being a manufacturer, I believe I know what I am talk-about, and I ask you to support my amendments.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McVicar, said a moment ago that both parties were in favor of a reorganization of the state government. That is true. I think all of the Democrats stand for a reorganization of state government as it is now functioning, but that does not necessarily mean that we can stand for this kind of a reorganization. The reorganization of the state government is a serious and a big proposition, and it is one that we should give most serious consideration to. I personally feel that there has not been the consideration given this bill that should have been given to it. It is diamethically opposed in a great many respects to the theories I have relative to governmental affairs. In the first place it means nothing but consolidation and concentration. With that statement of the Auditor General, who has given this matter much consideration, that that position is not advisable, he stated sometime ago that while this effort and consolidation and centralization would be more modern and praiseworthy and is no doubt modern and praiseworthy, in the sense that it is in keeping with the trend of the time and in conformity with what has been done with our sister states, yet I think that there is great danger in carrying it on to too great extent. We are taking away from the people, we are taking away from the representatives in the General Assembly the right to do the things that our constitutnets desire. We are putting all of these powers, all of this authority in the hands of one man. We are creating a despotic form of government, in my opinion, and are eliminating the form of government which has so long prevailed. Centralization and consolidation may be well in some instances, but I don't believe it is going to work well in this particular case. It is my opinion that if this bill had been presented to this House in former years or even in the past administration those members who are now so strongly advocating its passage would of been opposed to it. No. machine governor that this Commonwealth has ever had could have put this kind of bill across without having a great uproar in the State of Pennsylvania. All of the civic organizations and all of the Pennsylvania uplift societies would have been against it, and now we come in just because some reformer wants it and we are willing to give him unlimited power and unlimited authority. We are not making this change for this period of two years or four years, but this will change our form of government possibly for a great many years and how do we know what will happen when some other man comes into the Governor's Chair? How do we know that he will use it properly, secondly, I think that there is no reason why we should take a chance with anything as serious, with anything as important as this is, especially in view of the consolidation and centralization that this bill contains. In addition to that it means control of fiscal affairs by the Governor, and it is my opinion that he will practically dictate what the Legislature can do and what it cannot do under the provisions of this bill. Also one of the provisions budget amendment to the Constitution, taking those two things together with give him unlimited power and unlimited authority. I say we are not ready for such things yet. those things may be all right in the hands of an all wise despot, but that doesn't say that despotism is a desirable form of government. I think instead of taking away from the people the rights they have now we should return some of them we have already taken. We already have to much consolidation of authority. This subject was under discussion this morning that the school directors and the people in their own localities have nothing more to say relative to school matters, and now when we pass this teacher's tenure bill, the teacher's tenure bill, if it is a law, where will we get to? Every bill that we are having before this Legislature practically means taking away from the people the authority to govern themselves as they see fit, a local system of government has become a thing of the past and consolidation and centralization in the hands of a few has become the prevailing idea.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LUDLOW. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The gentleman from Montgomery said awhile ago that the salaries were standardized by an executive board. Will the gentleman from Montgomery state what that executive board is composed of?

Mr. LUDLOW. You mean of what individuals?

Mr. ALEXANDER. As far as the code is concerned.

Mr. LUDLOW. My recollection, without looking, is the governor and three or four people who made be designated from department heads.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is, the governor is the only one mentioned in this code, and anyone of the department heads he may choose, he may appoint?

Mr. LUDLOW. Right.

Mr. ALEXANDER. If the governor then desires to have absolute control, isn't it likely that he would appoint the appointive officers of the heads of departments, and not any of the elective officers under the constitution whatever?

Mr. LUDLOW. It would depend upon circumstances, but it is quite probable.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That would be the likely thing?

Mr. LUDLOW. It would be probably, under the present circumstances.

Mr. ALEXANDER. This present circumstance is only for a day, but we have to look into the future. On the other hand, outside of the superintendent of public instruction, there is no department head under his appointment that cannot be discharged by him at will? Isn't that correct?

Mr. LUDLOW. I think that is correct.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In other words then, if he wanted absolute control, he could appoint four department heads, and if they didn't standardize or fix salaries and do as he said, he could fire the whole bunch and get somebody else?

Mr. LUDLOW. It may be, but if he would give that as his reason, it would not meet with popular approval, and he would not be re-elected.

Mr. ALEXANDER. He can't be re-elected anyhow, can he?

Mr. LUDLOW. Not very well.

Mr. ALEXANDER. One more question I desire to ask the gentleman. You have read part of section 19, will you read all of section 19?

Mr. LUDLOW. Will you give me the page for reading reference?

Mr. ALEXANDER. On page 365.

Mr. LUDLOW. I am obliged to the gentleman from Delaware for the opportunity of reading the whole section. Section 19, "The secretary of internal affairs shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the surveyor general, subject to such changes as shall be made by law. His department shall embrace a bureau of industrial statistics, and he shall discharge such duties relating to corporations to the charitable institutions, the agricultural, manufacturing, mining, mineral, timber and other material or business interests of the state as may be prescribed by law. He shall annually, and at such other times as may be required by law, make report to the General Assembly".

Mr. ALEXANDER. The mineral therefore, provided in there, comes under the geological survey, does it not?

Mr. LUDLOW. Subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by law, and we are the law prescribing department.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Is there any other place in that Constitution where you can find that the legislature can prescribe by law that duty to any other officer?

Mr. LUDLOW. It follows that if we have the right, and if there is any question on that, before this legislature, the lower members of the House, that if the secretary of internal affairs has certain powers subject to such provisions as we shall make, such laws as we shall pass, that we have a perfect right to put them where we want.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You mean to say that having placed it in the hands of the secretary of internal affairs, that you and I as legislators, can take it out of the hands of the Secretary of internal affairs and put it some where else?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I will answer that in a kind of a Yankee fashion: as a student of constitutional matters in the state, are you not familiar with the fact that since the constitution of 1874, for a number of years, ten or more years, the secretary of internal affairs had nothing whatever to do with the work you are now seeking to transfer back to him?

Mr. ALEXANDER. That doesn't make it legal, does it?

Mr. LUDLOW. Is it not a fact?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Yes, and that is just the thing I have been opposing for the last four years, that very proposition.

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections, the Chair will proceed to the reading of the Table of Contents before any further action on the first section. Are there objections? The Chair hears none.
